Vt. Governor Will Get Red Carpet Welcome to This City To Head Heart Fund in Newton

"A Red Carpet" welcome is being planned for the visit of Governor F. Ray Keyser, of Vermont, to Newton next week. He will be the principal speaker at the annual Lincoln Day dinner, sponsored by Newton's Republican organizations, and scheduled for the Normandie Room on Tuesday, February 7.

Clarify Request To Rezone Land At Country Club

Confusion concerning a petition for rezoning a portion of the Commonwealth Country Club was cleared up today by Leo A. Wexler, a developer. A hearing on the requested zoning change will be held at Newton City Hall on the night of Feb. 13.

Mr. Wexler explained that the petition does not cover all the Country Club land but involves only 38 acres near the Brighton line where it is planned to erect apartment buildings if the present zoning restrictions are lifted.

He said the other 42 acres of land at the Country Club would be retained as a nine-hole golf course and that there are no plans for rezoning that land or for erecting any buildings on it.

Edward C. Uehlein, general chairman of the dinner and president of the Newton Republican Club, announced yesterday that the reception for Governor Keyser includes a visit to the State House where he will meet Governor Volpe. Additions to the list of invited guests are: State Representatives Frank S. Giles, Arthur G. Heaney, Lorenz Muther, George E. Rawson, and John W. Whittemore.

The Lincoln Day Dinner is annually sponsored by the Newton Republican City Committee, Newton Women's Republican Club, and the Newton Republican Club.

Mr. Uehlein released a partial list of patrons and patronesses who are sponsoring tables at the dinner. Names included are: Mrs. David M. Schulman, chairman of the Committee on Sponsors; Mr. Stanton DeWitt Barclay; Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Becherer; Mr. James Chandler; Mr. and

Volpe's Problems Mounting As Crucial Showdowns Near

Governor Volpe's problems appear to be mounting as he moves toward the critical stages of his administration and showdown tests on a number of major issues.

His inability to count on the support of a majority of the members of the Legislature on some of the measures he would like to have enacted into law obviously is a heavy handicap.

He has been unable to gain the control he desires over certain key agencies, including the State Public Works Department which he headed during the Herts regime.

The threatened delay or even loss of the great Prudential Centre has caused him to compromise in the controversy on whether a toll road or freeway should be built between Weston and Boston.

Some of his proposals appear destined for defeat in the overwhelmingly Democratic Legislature.

All this doesn't mean that Volpe is throwing up his hands in despair. On the contrary, he's going about his job as Governor in a cool, composed and competent manner. But he does have his full quota of problems with a surplus left over.

Legislative leaders estimate that the fight over the suggested reorganization of the Metropolitan District Commission will be waged and decided before the end of February. That clash should provide some revealing evidence as to the amount of support Volpe can muster among Democratic legislators.

As matters stand today, it appears that the MDC reorganization proposal, under which former Lieutenant Governor Robert F. Murphy would be ousted

Mayor Gibbs Stands Firm In Campaign To Block Toll Road

Newton Interests Paramount In Mayor's Long-Time Fight

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs was standing firm today in his determined fight to block the extension of the Massachusetts Toll Road through Newton over the Boston & Albany roadbed.

In the bitter controversy Gibbs was holding some trump cards in his hand and was trying to play them in the way which might eventually produce the most satisfactory arrangement for Newton and its citizens.

The Newton Mayor was the target of both pressure and criticism as his critics charged that by standing adamant and unyielding he may jeopardize the great Prudential Centre planned for the Back Bay section of Boston.

Gibbs' answer was that he is ready and willing to cooperate with neighboring Boston but that cooperation is not a one-way street and that Newton is entitled to some consideration.

He declared that the controversy could be resolved right now by building a freeway rather than a toll road through Newton and by constructing it along the Charles River rather than over the Boston & Albany roadbed.

There seemed to be scant likelihood this morning that Gibbs' proposal would be accepted and almost as little that Gibbs would back down under the pressure and give up the fight he has been waging since before he was elected Mayor.

Until a few days ago Gibbs' arguments and appeals went largely unheeded as Turnpike Authority Chairman William F. Callahan went ahead with plans for extending the toll road through Newton over the Boston & Albany roadbed.

MAYOR OPPOSES RAZING OF HOMES

Those plans, to which Gibbs had objected so strenuously, call for razing 350 Newton homes and business establishments and for demolishing $4.5 million worth of taxable property in the city.

Then last week officials on Beacon Hill and in the Turnpike Authority woke up to the fact that Gibbs can stall the toll road project for a considerable length of time and that time now is of the essence.

Norumbega Boy Scouts List 1960 Most Successful Year

The year 1960 was one of the busiest and most successful for the Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, it was reported today by Ralph B. Johnson, scout executive of the council. Last year was the movement's 50th anniversary.

Mr. Johnson said that Norumbega Council now serves a total of 3,700 boys in Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Exploring.

There are now 46 Cub Scout Packs, 45 Boy Scout Troops and 13 Explorer Units within the Norumbega Council.

Serving these units and the local council as adult volunteer leaders are 1,112 men. Together with the 323 women serving in Cub Scouting as Den Mothers, making it possibly the largest body of volunteers in any one organization dedicated to the cause of youth.

A new record was established in camping last year in the Norumbega Council.

Last summer Scouts attended Camp Quinapoxet and Hidden Valley of Norumbega Council. Camp Quinapoxet had a program of Scouting while the Explorers were at the newly acquired Camp Hidden Valley participating in a development program.

Yet, while this record attendance was chalked up at the local council camps the Norumbega Council was well represented by 42 Scouts, Explorers, and leaders at the greatest single non-military encampment in United States history.

This was the Fifth National Jamboree which saw a new 2,500-acre tented city spring up at Colorado Springs, Colorado. There last July 22 to 28 some 58,986 boys and leaders camped together.

Some 325 other Scouts who remained home took part in the Council's jubilee camporee, camping overnight. This was held at Nobscot Scout Reservation in Framingham.

Do you know your Newton? Monte Basbas, City Clerk, will speak to members of the Newton League of Women Voters about the structure and operation of Newton's city government on Wednesday, February 8 at 8:00 P.M. at the home of Mrs. Bertram Silver, 35 Fenwick Road, Waban.

Some of the many questions which arise in the minds of Newtonites are: Who are the men who run Newton? What are its departments? How do I get another street light? Newton residents are invited to pose their own questions and to take advantage of Mr. Basbas' fund of information on this subject.

It was one of the most successful achievement dinners held in the three-year history of the event.

Public Health Parley Here Sparks Lively Discussions

The School of Nursing on the Newton campus of Boston College was the scene of the day-long meeting last week of the Massachusetts Public Health Association which featured lively discussions.

Topics concerned fluoridation, medical care for the aged, mental health, progress in tuberculosis control and environment sanitation.

The meeting was presided over by Leon Sternfeld, president of the Association and Health Commissioner of Cambridge, and had as its general theme "Setting Priorities in Program Planning for Community Health."

Approximately 400 persons attended the meeting, which included general sessions in the morning and evening, afternoon discussion groups, a luncheon session with a guest speaker, and a social hour and dinner.

The meeting opened with a panel discussion on the general theme of the program, keynoted by Dr. George James, first deputy commissioner of Public Health of New York City. Participants in the panel discussion sparked by Dr. James' remarks were Dr. Alfred L. Zoning Board Grants Appeals

The Newton Zoning Board of Appeals has granted petitions for subdivision of land into four house lots, and a request for a variance of the setback of a new dwelling inadvertently placed too close to a front line.

However, the Board denied five requests for legalization of substandard lots and a request for permission to use a dwelling for offices.

Rawson Bills Seek To Eliminate Causes Of High Auto Insurance

A four-point program designed to lower motor vehicle insurance rates was announced today by Rep. George E. Rawson of Newton after he filed a series of bills in the 1961 House of Representatives. He stated:

"As a result of years of experience as an insurance broker, legislator and motorist, I have a firm conviction that greater highway safety would result in lower motor vehicle insurance rates."

His first point would raise the minimum age for auto licenses to 18 because "there have been recently too many serious and fatal accidents involving youngsters of 16 and 17."

Rawson's second bill would ban "hitch-hiking," putting the penalty on the one seeking the ride. "This practice has led to many accidents," the Newton solon said. "Whoever picks up a stranger is a fool, for the latter becomes a guest occupant of his car and the owner is liable for him in case of an accident. Some years ago I paid a very large accident insurance claim on a client who picked up a man who slugged him into unconsciousness and robbed him."

The third bill seeks to authorize the Insurance Commissioner to assess a surcharge on all drivers in the so-called "assigned risk" pool who are placed there because of a record of serious violations of motor vehicle laws or of persistent accident claim frequency. "And yet they are permitted insurance at the same rates — the surcharge should be made so high as to drive them off the road."

Newton Man Presides At Awards Fete

A Newton resident, William Carmen of 48 Philmore Rd., will be toastmaster at the annual Brotherhood Breakfast sponsored by the Mass. Department, Jewish War Veterans, on Sunday (Feb. 5) at 8 a.m. at Northeastern University's gym.

Some 1,000 persons are expected to attend the breakfast co-sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews. Approximately 100 high school students from across the state will receive "Brotherhood Awards."

Presenting the honorable mention awards will be another Newton resident, Roger P. Sonnabend of 146 Malla Terrace, president of the Hotel Division of the Hotel Corp. of America.

creases in accordance with the report of a survey made by the consulting firm of Charles Evans and Associates of Boston which made a four-months survey.

This consultants' report reclassified less than 50 city employees and did not include the School Department in the survey.

Salary increases, effective May 1, under the mayor's plan, will cost the city $234,000 this year and an additional $471,000 in 1962, he reported. However, the Aldermanic Finance Committee is expected to act only on this year's raises, which would represent about 90 cents on the tax rate.

Mayor Gibbs suggested to heads that they draw up their 1961 budget recommendations in accordance with the consultants' outline.

Police and firefighters would receive a $300 annual increase, starting May 1, this year and an additional increase of $200, effective May 1, 1962. Firefighters would reach in 1962 the $5000 maximum they sought to obtain this year in their unsuccessful pay raise referendum last November.

Increases to department heads would range from $300 to $900 with an average annual increment of $316, Mayor Gibbs reported. Their increase would total $11,500 this year and an additional $7584 in 1962, according to the schedule.

Police sergeants and fire lieutenants would go from a maximum of $5500 last year to $5870 on May 1 and to $6100 in May, 1962. Police lieutenants and fire captains would go from $6100 to $6470 this year and to $6730 in 1962. Police captains and assistant fire chiefs would go from $6700 to $7000 on May 1, and to $7900 on May 1, 1962.

Most of the 50 persons reclassified were upgraded, but the few who were downgraded will continue to receive their present rates of pay, Mayor Gibbs reported. The new scales would go into effect when vacancies occur, he pointed out.

The Toll Road Issue

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs' first and foremost responsibility is to the people of Newton who 15 months ago elected him to direct the municipal affairs of their city. Because he is fulfilling that responsibility Mayor Gibbs is being pictured as an obstructionist by some commentators.

He is being criticized and taken sternly to task because he opposes the construction of a toll road from Weston through Newton to Boston and because he is against demolishing 350 Newton homes and business places and wiping out $4.5 million worth of taxable property in the city.

The contention of Mayor Gibbs' critics appears to be that he should withdraw his objections and make any sacrifices demanded in Newton for the greater good of the Turnpike Authority and the City of Boston. Mr. Gibbs quite understandably doesn't see it that way.

Whatever those who take issue with Mayor Gibbs may say about his position, they will have to concede that it has been consistent and unwavering. It is the same now as it was a year ago.

It is a difficult thing for a Mayor to stand up under the pressure being brought upon Mr. Gibbs. But he doesn't seem to be weakening or crumbling beneath it. What the people of Newton certainly must realize is that the Mayor is fighting their battle and that he is standing firm to protect their interests. He also is making virtually a lone fight.

Only Second-Class People Make A Second-Class Nation

People who want to be paid without working enough to earn it are second class people, not Americans. People who want to be protected without having the courage to fight, and earn their own protection, are second class citizens. People more anxious for security than self-respect, comfort above accomplishment, for "peace in our time" above integrity . . . all these shallow, self-seeking, small-souled people are dragging America down to the second-class nations status.

For a hundred years of hard working self support, America was respected, prosperous, unselfish without being made a fool.

Run this nation once more by hard work—and for those Americans with self-respect, not for whiners—and we'd sweep that scornful "second class" sneer and all excuses for it down the rat hole where it belongs.

Political Highlights

from his position as head of the agency, will be passed in the Senate but killed in the House.

Senate President John F. Powers strongly favors a reorganization of the MDC and unquestionably will be able to marshal enough votes in the chamber he heads to pass the bill. But Murphy is sufficiently popular with the House members to block the measure there.

Volpe probably can win his fight for reorganizing and shaking up the MTA but will run into opposition from Boston Mayor John F. Collins and other city officials if he follows the counsel of some of his top advisors and endeavors to fire General Manager Thomas J. McLernon of the transit system.

Democratic leaders in the Legislature say that Volpe probably will be unable to obtain passage of a $100 million highway bond issue unless he provides some means of paying off the loan. That presumably means a hike in the State gasoline tax.

Governor Volpe has startled many religious leaders by his declaration that while he is personally opposed to a State lottery, he would sign into law a bill establishing a lottery if the measure contained safeguards that all the profits would go into the State treasury and that there would be no leakage.

That has caused increased conjecture on Beacon Hill concerning the likely outcome of the battle in the Legislature over the lottery measure.

In almost all instances where the people have had an opportunity to vote on the question of setting up a State lottery, a majority of those who recorded themselves have favored the idea.

Notwithstanding the various expressions of public sentiment, many law-makers have backed gingerly away from the lottery proposal because of the attitude of clergymen.

Apart from any moral issues or the fact that people might gamble more money on a lottery than they could afford to lose, the big catch in the lottery proposal is that it wouldn't produce anywhere near the amount of revenue for the State which many people believe and would not make any real impact on the tax problem in the Commonwealth.

The conflicting reactions of Senate President Powers and House Speaker John F. Thompson to Governor Volpe's budget pointed up not only the difficulties Volpe may have with a Democratic Legislature but also the difference between Powers and Thompson, the two top Democratic legislative chieftains.

Thompson plainly implied that he considered Volpe's budget might go too far in cutting down expenses. Powers indicated that he felt it didn't go far enough. As Volpe viewed their contrasting statements, he must have wondered how he could devise a budget which would be satisfactory to the two men who wield tremendous influence in their respective legislative chambers.

Speaker Thompson said the Democrats would not stand for budget cuts which would reduce the efficient operation of the State government—adding that the House way and means committee would take a long, hard look at the budget.

Powers, while asserting that he would not countenance political purges, praised the austerity aspects of Volpe's budget but said he felt greater cuts

Carol Alban In Glee Club Tour Of Ohio College

Miss Carol Alban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alban, 352 Cabot street, Newtonville, and a freshman at Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio, has been on tour from January 27 through 31, with the college Women's Glee Club.

The group, composed of forty-five members, toured cities and gave concerts in cities in northwestern Ohio.

Miss Alban is a sociology major. Her activities include the Glee Club, where she sings first soprano, and Epsilon Kappa Tau social sorority. Her father is prominently associated with the Highland Glee Club in Newton.

could be accomplished without hampering the operations of the State government.

Thompson and Powers have adopted somewhat different positions toward the Volpe administration. Powers has pledged a bipartisan cooperation with the Governor, while Thompson has adopted more of a wait-and-see attitude. Volpe, of course, needs the help of both of them.

Powers, while endeavoring to cooperate with Volpe on matters he considers of public benefit, also is striving to fulfill his responsibility as a leader in the opposition party to the Governor.

That creates a situation in which Powers' various responsibilities could easily clash with each other. In fairness to Powers, it should be stated that he has a high sense of his various responsibilities and that his position is not altogether an easy one.

When Powers says that he intends to give Volpe bipartisan cooperation, what he means is that he plans to support measures proposed by the Governor which he considers are for the public welfare.

He knows that if he were to offer partisan opposition to every bill submitted by Governor Volpe, the latter would be unable to get anything through the Senate.

Powers, on the other hand will not look back on partisan political matters. A clash between Volpe and Powers probably is inevitable when the Legislature gets around to dividing the State into new congressional districts, for example.

The Senate president also feels that he cannot be in a position of supporting portions of Volpe's legislative program, if the Governor is out trying to tear down the Democratic party.

That is why Powers objected sharply to a speech made by Volpe in which the Governor referred to the possibility of the Republicans gaining control of both branches of the Legislature in 1962.

At that time Powers cautioned Volpe that he couldn't make partisan political speeches or direct what could be construed as attacks upon the Democratic party and at the same time expect bipartisan support from the Democrats.

Powers' position is one which could easily be misconstrued. In fairness to him, however, he is simply trying to meet all his responsibilities as a public leader.

The guessing on Beacon Hill is that Powers and Volpe will work together reasonably well for the remainder of 1961 but that when they get into 1962, an election year, the bipartisan cooperation between them will become increasingly difficult to work out.

Headlights and Highlights From Newton High School

By FRANCES WITTY

WINTER WEATHER seems to be having a profound effect upon the 1960-1961 season at Newton High School. Snow interfered with several second term examinations, enabled Newton High to hold a Winter Carnival, eliminated some student driving to school, and is upsetting the schedule of N.H.S.-N.S.H.S. commuters.

Charlotte Lowery and Scott Silliman of Newton High joined Diana Chacran and Christina Olton of Newton South High as the four Newton student participants at the Convention of the Eastern Division of Music Educators in Washington, D. C. Charlotte, Scott and Diana who sang in the chorus and Christina who played the violin in the orchestra were in Washington one week before the big pre-inaugural storm.

World Day Of Prayer To Be Held Feb. 17

The 75th anniversary of the World Day of Prayer will be observed in Newton on February 17th with special services in the afternoon and evening. These will be sponsored by the Newton Council of Church Women.

The afternoon service will be held at the First Baptist Church, 848 Beacon street, Newton Centre at 2 o'clock. The guest speaker will be Dr. Roy Pearson, Dean of Andover-Newton Theological School.

The evening service, which is for everyone and especially for those men and women who cannot attend the afternoon service, will be held at the Church of the Messiah, 161 Auburn street, Auburndale. The Rev. Harold A. Malmberg, minister of the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre will be the guest speaker.

Letters have been sent to the ministers, priests and rabbis of all churches and temples in the city inviting them to participate in these services, or to have services in their own churches appropriate for the World Day of Prayer. Mrs. John D. Fox is president of the Newton Council Women and Mrs. Wallace M. Ross chairman for the World Day of Prayer.

"Are We Guiding or Pushing Our Children?" will be the topic of the Bowen School P.T.A. meeting to be held Monday evening, February 6, at 8:00 p.m., in the school auditorium.

Speaker for the evening will be Dr. Joseph Weinreb. As director of the Worcester Youth Guidance Center, professor in Psychiatry at Clark University, and assistant clinical professor in Psychiatry at Tufts University of Medicine, Dr. Weinreb is exceptionally well qualified in the area of child guidance, and he will discuss the following aspects of the topic: causes of physical aggression by one or more children against other children; disrespect by children of authority or the symbols of authority; pressures and tensions exerted on children; and extracurricular activities in terms of competitive aspects and parental expectations. Throughout his talk Dr. Weinreb will be concerned with what parents and teachers can do to alleviate these problems.

The evening will open with a brief business meeting presided over by Dr. Harry Mushlin, president of the Bowen P.T.A. Dr. Reuben Margolin, psychologist at Brockton VA Hospital, will introduce the speaker. Following Dr. Weinreb's talk, parents and teachers may ask questions from the floor.

After the meeting, refreshments will be served in the gymnasium by Mrs. Melvin Richmond and her hospitality committee. Co-chairmen of the Bowen P.T.A. program committee are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goorvich.

Teen Self-Help Driver Bill Is Muther Proposal

Rep. Lorenz F. Muther, Jr., of Newton, advocated Monday before the Committee on Highways and Motor Vehicles, his bill raising the minimum age for motor vehicle licenses to sixteen years and six months.

Terming the bill a "self-help measure for teen-agers and parents," Muther said that not only would it aid new drivers to "settle down" in their driving habits but also would give them a reasonable period of actual driving experience under widely varying road and traffic conditions before being licensed to drive alone.

"Moreover the bill would strengthen the hand of the parents by insisting on a longer practice period under the supervision of a licensed driver in a manner equally applicable to all teen-agers," continued Muther.

Pointing out that the proposal would not interfere with school or other driver training courses and would not restrict teen-agers from job opportunities involving driving in the sixteen-and-a-half to eighteen year age bracket, Muther noted that the bill required no new costs to be assumed by drivers at large, the cities and towns and the state, and, if successful, could avoid the possible imposition of teen-age driver curfews. The committee took the bill under advisement.

Gibbs has a petition pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission, which opposes the sale of the B & A road bed to the Turnpike Authority. If he loses his fight before that agency, he intends to carry it into the federal court. Meanwhile, Callahan cannot go ahead with the toll road.

When Governor Volpe and Turnpike Authority Chairman Callahan met in an attempt to resolve the dispute over building a toll road or freeway through Newton, they discovered that no matter what agreement they reached, Gibbs was still standing in the path of the toll road.

Mayor Gibbs indicates, incidentally, that he'll withdraw his opposition to a toll road if it is built along the Charles River, although he prefers a freeway.

He'll also back down on the sale of the B & A roadbed to the Turnpike Authority provided the toll road extension doesn't join the B & A tracks until the Faneuil section of Brighton.

But he will not yield in his opposition to building either a toll road or a freeway over the B & A tracks in Newton.

Mayor Gibbs this week issued a statement defending his position and sharply criticizing Turnpike Authority Chairman Callahan.

PUBLIC OPINION WANTS FREEWAY

"Public opinion plus about every responsible organization has called for a freeway—and to be built immediately," Gibbs declared. "Newton still subscribes to this point of view, asking that the route be a modified copy of the Master Highway Plan of 1948."

"What does Mr. Callahan's proposal mean to the City of Newton? It will cut off virtually all access to the railroad from the south side of the tracks, thus eliminating the present railroad stations and the access of shippers on this side of the rails to service," Gibbs continued.

"It will necessitate the relocation of passenger platforms to areas accessible only from already overburdened commercial streets and eliminate virtually all the parking presently available to railroad patrons."

"Under the existing agreement it could mean that the two remaining tracks would not be available for a substitute commuter service, should the railroads discontinue theirs."

"These are matters which the City is pressing before the I.C.C.," Gibbs stated.

"But far more serious than these is the fact that it will destroy 350 homes of Newton citizens, remove $4,500,000 from the assessment rolls in Newton, seriously curtail and impede access to the shopping and business areas at West Newton and Newtonville, and virtually destroy that at Newton Corner. The problems which will result for Newton, both from the loss of valuations and from necessary urban redevelopment cannot be overestimated."

"The freeway could awaken this entire area, sparking industrial as well as residential growth in a section of Greater Boston that has already supplied leadership to a phenomenal expansion," the Mayor said.

"Many persons have fear for the Prudential Center in Boston. It is not Newton's intent nor desire to block the rebirth of this area in the Back Bay. Prudential has stated that it could start development with either type of road, but wants and needs a definite answer."

"As Mayor of Newton, I will gladly withdraw my objections before the Interstate Commerce Commission, provided I am assured that a freeway will be built on a modified Master Highway Plan, skirting the Charles River. I would welcome the opportunity to cooperate with our neighbors

Family Service Plans Panel On Pre-School Irks

A discussion group to consider with parents the common difficulties presented by pre-school children in the home will be sponsored by the Family Service Bureau of Newton, starting shortly and continuing for six weekly sessions of one and a half hours each.

The group will be led by Mrs. Elinor F. Evison, M.S.S., Casework Supervisor at the Bureau. Mrs. Evison has had many years of experience in family and children's agencies. She is qualified by professional education in the Smith College Graduate School of Social Work, by daily practical experience in helping people with personal and family problems and by special training in group leadership.

The discussion group is offered to the community as a part of the Bureau's Family Life Education program. The project is undertaken with the hope that it will afford a helpful, practical, "down-to-earth" approach to the common problems which face most parents.

The size of the group will be limited. Anyone interested in more detailed information may call Mrs. Evison at 74 Walnut Park, Newton 58, LAseil 7-7880.

Shopping Plaza Association Is Being Organized

Plans are being completed for the organization of the Garden City Shopping Plaza Association which will include businesses on the south side of the Worcester turnpike, between the Hammond Pond Pkwy., Chestnut Hill, and Langley Rd., Newton Centre, it was reported today.

The purpose of the group will be to make a co-operative effort to promote and develop the area, which is Newton's newest shopping center. Temporary officers of the organization, who will serve until permanent officers are elected at a meeting to be held this month are Paul Hogan, manager of the Stop & Shop; Joseph F. Bayer, treasurer of the Garden City Trust Co.; and Steven Kay of Kays-Newport, secretary.

Other concerns who have participated in the preliminary meetings include the Hammond Furniture Co., the Charterhouse Motor Hotel, Keller Bros., Security Co., Marcel French Salon, the Star Television Co., Liggett's, and Valle's Steak House.

In Boston, but cooperation is not a one-way street that will see the City of Newton and the area west of Boston give away their birthright.

"It is about time that the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority realized that public interest, both in and out of Boston, must receive consideration. They are the real obstructionists, seeing only power and dollar receipts for bondholders."

"The Prudential development could be given the green light tomorrow if one member of the Authority gave the word, and it's that simple. The entire Greater Boston area is waiting to go. Let's break the bottleneck, put the plans for the benefit of Boston and its environs into operation."

"All Newton has ever asked is what public opinion, now swelling to a crescendo, feels is correct. A freeway over the least damaging route," Gibbs concluded.

Helpful Guide To Hostess In Planning Party

Gay parties during the busy social season are exciting occasions for the guests, but for the considerate hostess, they require careful preparation and planning of food and drink menus.

Recipes and bar needs are outlined in the popular Old Mr. Boston Bartender's Guide, an authoritative publication, that has sold more than two million copies.

To help the hostess in coping with large numbers of guests in her home, the Guide offers a carefully proven schedule of glassware, quantities and types of drinks to serve at cocktail or dinner parties.

The Guide, which offers more than 800 recipes for drinks, ranging from Affinity and Angel's Kiss to the ZaZa Cocktail, suggests using cracked or cubed ice for stirring and shaking, crushed or shaved ice for special tall drinks, frappes and others to be sipped through straws and regular ice cubes for most highballs, old fashioned and "on-the-rock" drinks.

There are 282 dry gin recipes, 42 absinthe drinks, 48 apricot brandy drinks, 94 rum drinks, 31 Scotch whiskey drinks, 76 bourbon, blended, rye and Canadian whiskey drinks and 65 wine drinks in the 110-page recipe section of the Guide.

Trailer Parks

There are about 13,000 trailer parks in the U.S.

of United Community Services of Metropolitan Boston; and Robert C. Wood, Associate Professor of Political Science, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The afternoon discussion group on "Fluoridation — What's New?" was organized around an analysis of the ! of community leadership needed to mount a successful campaign to achieve fluoridation of local water supplies, and emphasized the need for thorough explanation to average citizens of the experimental evidence in favor of fluoridation and of the legal and moral arguments supporting this evidence.

The right of children to have the benefits of fluoridation was stressed, and it was pointed out that public health officials are "trustees" of a community's children in this regard.

Dr. Robert Kirschbaum, of the Newton Health Department, presided over this session, and leaders of the discussion were Jean Mayer, of the Nutrition Department of the Harvard School of Public Health; Sarah J. Schmidt of the Connecticut State Health Department; and Irwin T. Sanders, Chairman of the Department of Sociology of Boston University.

The luncheon meeting, at which Noble J. Swearingen, Director of the Washington office of the American Public Health Association, was the speaker, was co-sponsored by the Massachusetts Health Council and the Massachusetts Public Health Association.

Mr. Swearingen, who spoke on "Current Federal Legislation of Interest to Public Health Personnel," was introduced by Dr. Leon J. Taubenhau, Brookline Director of Health. Dr. Victoria M. Cass, President of the Health Council, presided.

The Speaker at the evening session was Dr. Harold W. Graning, New York Regional Medical Director of the United States Public Health Service. Dr. Graning's subject was "Reorganization of the Public Health Service: Implications for State and Local Health Departments." Dr. Hugh R. Leavell, Professor of Public Health Practice at the Harvard School of Public Health, presided.

Citizens Group Stiffens Rezone Campaign Front

Opponents of the move to rezone land in the Sidney Hill Country Club area for business use, at a recent meeting voted unanimously to wage a strong and continuing fight to keep the area free of commercial enterprises.

Those in opposition to the rezoning move have called attention to the hearing before the Board of Aldermen scheduled for Monday evening, February 13, at 7:45 o'clock at city hall. They anticipate a capacity attendance.

Leon Gammerman, 66 Tanglewood Road, co-chairman of the Citizens Committee opposing the rezoning, stated, "In fairness to the countless owners of homes in the area who have invested their savings and labor and have thereby contributed to the general welfare of the community, the Board of Aldermen should uphold the public interest and deny the petition for rezoning."

In question are 320,220 square feet of land on which the present Sidney Hill Country Club is located.

Mr. Gammerman told The Graphic that not only is the opposition practically unanimous from Tanglewood Road, Florence Street, Louise Road, and Dudley Road, but it also has enlisted the support of people living in other areas of Newton who have expressed fear to him that Route 9 and its environs will become an area of honky-tonk neon lights.

Mr. Gammerman also stated that the Citizens Committee is circulating petitions which declare that the proposed rezoning would further aggravate traffic congestion, and would increase safety and fire problems in the neighborhood.

What does your boss think...

when your name comes up for promotion?

Your boss must satisfy himself on two counts. First, your job skill, as shown by your work record. Then he considers your personal abilities.

Do you show self-confidence? Do you fumble, for words to express ideas? Do you speak up in meetings? Can you convey enthusiasm to others? Do you show interest in your job? How do you get along with your associates? Do they willingly co-operate with you? Do you think problems through, and make your own decisions?

Your work may speak for itself, but these qualities speak for you. They can determine whether you move ahead or stay behind.

More than 750,000 men and women have completed the Dale Carnegie Course in the past 48 years. They developed self-confidence, the ability to speak effectively and get along with people.

Newton Solons Are Named To Key Committees

Reps. George E. Rawson, John W. Whittemore, and Arthur G. Heaney, all of Newton, are included among thirty-two Republican members of the Massachusetts House of Representatives appointed by Rep. Frank S. Giles of Methuen, Republican floor leader, as GOP leadership representatives on their respective legislative committees.

The representatives assigned to this group are expected, Giles stated, to report to the floor leaders on all bills before their committees.

Rawson will report on bills before the committee on Election Laws, Whittemore on Insurance, and Heaney on Municipal Finance.

"These appointments are most important because it is essential to advise the party leadership concerning proposed legislation before it reaches the floor of the House," Giles announced. "In the case of bills that are either controversial, or that require explanation, it will be helpful to our membership if the floor leaders and sometimes the party advisory council, have advance knowledge of the problems facing the legislative committees."

Rawson has served in the House since 1943, Whittemore since 1957, and Heaney since 1954.

Meet Your Visiting Nurse

A welcome addition to the staff of the Newton Visiting Nurse Association, one of Newton's Red Feather agencies, Miss Barbara M. Eagle, has a busy schedule as she makes her rounds in the Newton Center area. She also assists at the Bowen School Well Baby Conference.

Another phase of her program involves the continued teaching of the patient and the family. Following the initial instruction to a diabetic regarding administration of insulin, she frequently continues to see the patient to review the diet and to help the family in their understanding of phases of care and diet, so that all are completely understood by the patient and other members of the family.

Miss Eagle is a graduate of St. Elizabeth's Hospital School of Nursing and received her B. S. degree from the St. Louis University School of Nursing.

Brotherhood To Hold Service At Temple Tomorrow

Dr. Beryl D. Cohen, Rabbi of Temple Sinai, will conduct the service. Members of the Brotherhood will participate in the service.

The Temple Sinai Choir will be directed by Evelyn Borofsky-Roskin.

A reception in the Ehrenfried Hall of the temple will follow the service.

Local Women On Tea Committee at Hub Hotel Feb. 6

The Massachusetts Committee of the Woman's Medical College will hold a Sherry Tea at the Sheraton Plaza on Monday afternoon, February 6th, to promote interest in the Washington to Boston Ball to be held on April 28.

A half hour of music will be presented by Joseph de Pasquale, violinist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Mr. de Pasquale will be accompanied by Luise Vosgerchain.

Hostess of the tea is Mrs. H. Dunster Howe. Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower is honorary chairman of the National Board and Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia is honorary chairman of the ball.

Among the Newton committee members are Mrs. Cecil Rose, chairman of the ball; Mrs. John Sweeney, Mrs. Isaac Alberts, Mrs. Gerald Glunts, Mrs. Arnold Fleisher and Mrs. Frederick Fisher, Jr. The proceeds of the ball will aid in the expansion program of the Women's Medical College.

Two Newton girls are in the cast of the Soph Revue at Hood College in Frederick, Md. They are Marcia Ann Kerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kerr of 33 Clark St., and Elizabeth Lubell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lubell of 45 Cedar St. Both girls are graduates of Newton High.

Church Youth Groups Seek Spring Funds

Operation Williamsburg (the church youth fellowships from the Grace Episcopal, Newton Methodist and Eliot Congregational Churches) announces that the film A Man Called Peter will be shown at the Eliot Church fellowship hall on Sunday, February 5th at 7 p.m.

The proceeds will go to help finance the spring trip of the high school young people to Valley Forge, Gettysburg, Washington and Williamsburg.

Another event is also being planned for Valentine's Day, February 14 from 3 to 5 at the Eliot Church. This will be a Valentine's Day Food Sale. Cakes, cookies, bread, rolls, and pies will be among the items to be sold. There will also be tea, or coffee and cookies served by the young people. Decorated cakes and cookies for the Valentine season will be a special feature.

The Operation Williamsburg group also asks that you save papers and magazines, because they are sponsoring a Paper Drive on Saturday, February 25. For collection, please call BT 4-3639, or BT 4-3221 and leave your name and address.

$15,000,000 Apartment Plan To Be Unveiled At Meeting Monday

Plans for a $12 to $15,000,000 "open" land apartment development for 38 acres of Commonwealth Country Club in Newton will be unveiled Monday evening, Feb. 13 at 7:45 p.m. at Newton City Hall.

The public is invited to a hearing for the rezoning of 38 acres of the 80-acre Newton site of the country club for the construction of seven for-luxurious apartment buildings with a total of 856 one and two bedroom suites.

The seven luxurious apartment buildings, three 14-story and four 11-story, have been designed to occupy only three percent of the entire 80-acre site, leaving large open areas. The Commonwealth Country Club would operate as a nine hole golf course with swimming pool and tennis court on 43 acres open to those in the community.

The present tax income from the 80 acres is announced as $21,000 to the City of Newton. Construction of the deluxe apartment buildings, which would be located about 100 feet from abutting dwellings, would bring an estimated net revenue of $450,000 to the city's coffers, it was pointed out by the developers.

With Newton taxpayers faced with the probable loss of over $4,500,000 of taxable property as a result of the proposed toll road extension through the city, this Chestnut Hill Park development will exceed the loss by about $200,000 in tax revenue to the city, according to proponents of the plan.

These apartments are expected to appeal to senior citizens. — APARTMENT PLAN — (Continued on Page 7)

Young GOP Holds Big Kickoff Party Next Thursday, Feb. 16th

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs heads the list of well-known Newton political figures expected to attend a gala Kick-off Party of the newly-organized Newton Young Republican Club to be held next Thursday (Feb. 16) at the Newton Community Center, 429 Cherry St., West Newton.

Everyone is cordially invited and bring their friends. Refreshments will be served. The time is 8 p.m.

To help the Republican cause by actively working for the election of Republicans to public office. To this end, the club will work closely with the City Committee and other Republican groups throughout the area.

In addition to active campaigning, the Club will also supply its members with a — YOUNG GOP — (Continued on Page 3)

Single Session For Grades 1-6

Newton superintendent of schools, Dr. Charles E. Brown, has announced that the emergency school schedule which began yesterday providing for one session, will remain in effect until further notice for Grade 1 through 6.

The order was placed into effect due to the extreme weather, the superintendent said.

"This means a single session for Grade 1 to 6 running every day from 8:30 a. m. to 1 p. m.," Dr. Brown said. It will eliminate the problem of mid-morning crossing projection by police in order to make it possible for kindergarten pupils to walk with older brothers and sisters.

Dr. Brown reported a five per cent increase in absenteeism in elementary schools from the normal 10 per cent, apparently due to the weather.

Aldermen Deny School Travel Pay

The controversy between the Newton Board of Aldermen and the School Committee over allowance for out-of-state travel, which is listed for arguments before the state Supreme Court in April, was revived Monday night.

The Aldermen, by a vote of 14 to 2, continued their refusal to grant funds for out-of-state travel. Travel expenditure of $3300 for the School Department was approved, but the money's use was restricted "for recruiting teachers outside the state and for sending members of the school professional staff to meetings of national organizations and conferences on subject matter areas and other professional requirements."

Two years ago a group of taxpayers brought suit against the Aldermen who refused to approve $1100 spent for travel by school officials to California to attend a convention. The Superior Court ordered the City to appropriate the money plus 25 per cent penalty, but the Aldermen carried the case to the Supreme Court.

City Solicitor Matt B. Jones said the case is due to be argued at the April session of the high court.

Gibbs Will Compromise But Not Surrender His Position On Toll Road

"Summit" Conference Next Week Will See Mayor Firm

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs told the Graphic today that he is prepared to compromise but not surrender at the "summit" conference to be held at the State House next Wednesday on his opposition to extending the Massachusetts Toll Road over the Boston & Albany roadbed through Newton.

The Mayor made it plain that he doesn't intend to do all the compromising or to have any toll road plan forced down his throat. A compromise, he added, is a two-way proposition in which each side makes concessions.

He said he has no desire to block or stall the great Prudential Centre planned for Boston but that his first responsibility is to protect the interests of Newton and its citizens.

Gibbs made no secret of his resentment of threats by Senate President John E. Powers that Newton might be hit by higher MTA and MDC assessments if he persists in opposing the construction of the toll road over the B&A tracks.

Mayor Gibbs pointed out that Powers made a fight last year for the adoption of a new formula for distributing the MTA deficit, which would increase Newton's share eightfold, and that he is planning to do the same thing again this year.

The meeting, arranged in an attempt to achieve a compromise on the toll road controversy, originally was set for Tuesday morning but was postponed because Gibbs suffered the loss of the tip of his thumb and finger in an accident while operating a snow-blower at his summer home in Peterboro, N. H. The conference is now tentatively scheduled for next Wednesday morning but is contingent upon the Mayor's physical condition.

MAYOR HOSPITALIZED AFTER ACCIDENT
Mayor Gibbs was taken to the Peterboro Hospital Sunday, following his accident, was released on Monday and was driven by his wife to his Newton home. He has been in extreme pain but has been under sedation much of the time.

Gibbs disclosed to The Graphic that he was the one who suggested the meeting which is now being referred to as a "summit conference."

He said that he called Senate President Powers, after the latter had made public a communication from Prudential officials, to inform Powers that some of the statements contained in it were untrue and that Newton never had been given the opportunity to present its side of the story.

During the conversation Powers asked Gibbs if he wanted him (Powers) to arrange a meeting. Gibbs replied that he would welcome a conference with Prudential and Turnpike Authority officials and told Powers to go ahead and set one up.

Gibbs has been the subject of tremendous attention and

Women Voters Discussion To Study Library System

"Let's Look at the Library" is the theme of the next series of unit discussion meetings sponsored by the Newton League of Women Voters on February 14, 15, and 16.

The study and evaluation of the library system in Newton is a new and challenging local item for the Newton League, stated Mrs. Melvin Gordon, chairman of the library resource committee. With the help of Mr. A. William Kunkel, Newton's head librarian, and others directly involved in the Newton Public Library, and through personal visits to all the library buildings, the committee has gathered information on the development and present operation of the libraries in Newton.

League members and interested Newton women will have an opportunity to decide whether the system is adequate for Newton's needs at any of the eight meetings scheduled as follows:

New 18 Inch Snow Storm Hits Newton Budget With Huge Bill For $140,000

Newton's most expensive blizzard of the winter which deposited from 17 to 18 inches of heavy snow, was blamed for one death and represented an additional $140,000 blow to Newton's budget, Street Commissioner Frank K. Perkins declared today.

"This was a particularly expensive storm because the heavy fall drifted in many places, was added to the snow left by the severe January storm," Commr. Perkins explained, "and because it came after the two or three weeks spell of bitter cold weather we experienced."

Parked cars on city streets hampered snow removal in Newton, as they did in Boston and other communities. Newton police towed away some 113 illegally parked cars at the owners' expense.

By Tuesday morning the effects of the storm were all but licked by the city's 100 units of snow fighting equipment, plus 75 units from private contractors. The Commissioner estimated that some 800 men were engaged in Newton in plowing and snow removal.

Edwin F. Rothman, 56, of 133 Waban Ave., Waban, collapsed Sunday while using a snow blower in his driveway. He was pronounced dead after police sought to revive him by artificial respiration and a resuscitator. Newton began the year with a budget of $147,000 for snow plowing and removal, but this sum was virtually used up to combat the pre-winter storm in December and the sanding operations early in January. Then after the January storm, Mayor Donald L. Gibbs obtained a $100,000 emergency appropriation from the Board of Aldermen, and now this too has been consumed.

The three storms thus far have cost an estimated $233,000, which means a little over $1 on the tax rate.

Mayor Gibbs presented a $200,000 three-year program for the purchase of new snow-fighting equipment to the Board of Aldermen at the meeting Monday night.

The Mayor recommended appropriation of $113,500 for six sidewalk plows, three four-wheel drive snow fighters and a "sno-go" or rotary plow to be purchased now. The plan also called for the purchase of two snow fighters costing $18,000 each in each of the two following years.

DeNucci-Jones Fight Scheduled For Feb. 24th

The twice-postponed boxing bout between Newton's Joe DeNucci and Ralph "Tiger" Jones of New York has been re-scheduled for the Boston Arena on Friday, Feb. 24.

Originally the match was scheduled for Jan. 31 but was cancelled because of the MTA carmen's union strike. DeNucci came up with a virus at his home early this week and the bout, scheduled at the Arena for tonight, again was postponed.

Council Of Churches Favors Fair Housing

Delegates to the Newton Council of Churches, representing twenty-three Protestant churches, at their Mid-Winter meeting at the Central Congregational Church in Newtonville, unanimously reaffirmed their complete support of the principles of the Newton Fair Housing Committee.

Acting on a motion by the Rev. Harold Malmberg, pastor of the First Baptist Church, delegates agreed to work personally for the elimination of all types of discrimination in the field of housing and to alert their individual parishes to the need for continual attention to this growing problem.

Mrs. John D. Fox, president of the United Church Women of Newton, reminded delegates of the approaching World Day of Prayer on February 17th and urged attendance at one of the two services planned for the occasion. The afternoon services will be held at the First Baptist Church, Newton Centre at two o'clock; the evening service will be at the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale, at 8 o'clock.

The meeting was highlighted by an address by the Rev. T. C. Whitehouse, director of radio and television of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, who spoke on the subject

"Old Drams and Young Visions." Mr. Clarence Churchill, moderator of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church and president of the Newton Council of Churches, presided at the meeting.

HON. F. RAY KEYSER

The Governor of Vermont, F. Roy Keyser, speaking in Newton Tuesday night at the annual Lincoln Day Dinner sponsored by the city's three Republican groups, called for world organization for peace, warning that "We must develop a plan under which the people of the world can live together or almost certainly they will die together."

The newly elected Governor spoke at the dinner held at the Normandie Room and sponsored by the Newton Republican Club, the Women's Republican Club, and Republican City Committee.

More than 600 attended the dinner and heard the timely address of the Vermont Chief Executive who was introduced by Edward C. Uehlein, president of the Newton Republican Club and general chairman of the affair.

The Newton GOP organization gave Governor Keyser a red carpet welcome with a full day crowded with activities. These included a visit to the State House where a luncheon was tendered the visiting Governor by Governor John A. Volpe.

Commenting on existing world tensions and the need for a stable peace, Governor Keyser said in part:

"I suggest that a world legal order with court houses and weapons replacing battles and weapons of annihilation is the best plan to obtain peace and avert war. The Rule of Law must be extended to apply between countries if we are to achieve peace."

"As a last resort nations must be bound to sue instead of shoot. To those who say it cannot prevent war, I say it cannot prevent peace; that peace through law can be an active and motivating force for real peace. There is a common ground for world-wide acceptance of peaceful solutions in the concept of the court house found nowhere else.

Stating that the Court at the Hague is too remote, unacceptable and unavailable, Governor Keyser continued:

"The Court should sit at United Nations Headquarters and in any other place where it is needed to apply law to international disputes."

Head table guests included: Congressman Laurence Curtis, who delivered the Lincoln Day oration; Rev. Nathaniel T. Whitcomb, rector, Church of the Good Shepherd, Waban, who gave the invocation; Rev. Louis E. Ford, minister of the Myrtle Street Baptist Church, who gave the benediction.

Others at the head table were: Carlton P. Merrill, chairman, Republican City Committee; Hon. Howard Whitmore, former Mayor of Newton; Mrs. Emory Ireland, State Republican Committee; Hon. Donald L. Gibbs, Mayor of Newton; Edward J. O'Donoghue, Newton Republican Club, Hon. Frank Lappin, representing Governor John A. Volpe; Daniel F. McLean, chairman, Republican State Committee; Ralph H. Bonnell, Republican National Committee; William Saltonstall, representing Senator Leverett Saltonstall; Miss Adelaide B. Ball, president, Newton Women's Republican Club, Edward C. Uehlein, president, Newton Republican Club, who presided.

Snow Storm

The Aldermen voted to authorize immediate purchase of three sidewalk plows, and deferred the rest of the program for consideration with the regular budget.

Commr. Perkins said the three sidewalk plows would be ordered at once but he did not know how soon delivery could be made. He said he had been advised there was a two-weeks waiting period, but that was prior to Saturday's storm.

Rubbish collections were omitted Monday and Tuesday and these routes will not be covered until the regular collections next week, Commr. Perkins announced.

Early Saturday morning Commr. Perkins called out the city's snow-fighting equipment when the city's private weather forecasters were predicting a fall of from five to 12 inches, with a nine-inch total probable. Police estimated that plows encountered some 1,000 cars left in the streets. Many of them were notified to move their cars, but 113 were towed away.

There was little space for the new snow because of the piles left by the previous storm.

On Saturday the gale-whipped snow drifted across the tracks of the MTA along the Woodland Golf Course between Riverside and Woodland Station. Cars ran only as far as Reservoir Station in Brighton between 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. when the drifts were cleared.

Then the MTA ran extra cars and snow plows over the route to keep it free of drifts. Classes were cancelled Monday for kindergarten through the sixth grade but classes were held for junior high and high school students.

Numerous skiing accidents resulted from the hazardous driving conditions on the snow-covered streets. One pedestrian and nine motorists were reported injured in various accidents during the storm period. The pedestrian, Charles Droz of 382 Linwood Ave., Newtonville, was taken to Newton-Wellesley Hospital with chest injuries when struck by a car in Newtonville.

A Framingham woman was taken to the hospital with injuries to both knees, right arm and forehead suffered in a three-car collision on Watertown St. at Walnut in Newtonville.

In about a month the staff will change for the coming school year, and it has not yet been determined whether there will be two papers or just one for both high schools.

Credit should be given to this year's staff for maintaining an excellent paper despite the addition of another high school to Newton.

the object of intensive pressure to back down from his position as a result of the assertion by Prudential officials that they will abandon their proposed centre in the Back Bay if there is an extended delay in settling the toll road dispute.

One of the requests made upon Gibbs at the coming conference will be that he withdraw his petition now pending before the Interstate Commerce Commission opposing the sale of the B&A tracks to the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority and that he drop his plans for taking the matter into court if he loses his fight before the ICC.

HE WILL DEMAND NEWTON CONCESSIONS

Gibbs is certain to demand concessions for Newton before consenting to such a move. If he doesn't get them, the likelihood is that he will go on to battle the toll road extension not only before the ICC but all the way up to the U. S. Supreme Court.

That would prolong the toll road dispute beyond the deadline by which Prudential officials say all matters must be resolved if they are to go ahead with their plans.

Gov. Volpe originally was on the same side with Gibbs in opposing the extension of the toll road, but he backed away when Prudential officials declared his stand was jeopardizing their project.

Gibbs, it is understood, is especially anxious to tell his story and present his case to Prudential representatives.

In one of the flurries of statements this week Senate President Powers said that if Gibbs does not withdraw his petition now before the ICC he (Powers) would ask President Kennedy to instruct the ICC to act speedily on the matter.

Powers conceded, however, that similar pressure could not be exerted on the Supreme Court if Gibbs carries his case to that tribunal.

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs has issued a proclamation designating Friday, Feb. 17, as World Day of Prayer in Newton and urged every church or business having bells, chimes or whistles to sound them at 12 noon for the observance of the call to prayer.

The proclamation called upon the people of Newton "to observe this day by attending services at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Newton Centre, or at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Church of the Messiah in Auburndale."

Mayor Gibbs' proclamation pointed out that the General Department of the United Church Women of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. has designated Feb. 17 as World Day of Prayer. It added that the Newton Council of Church Women and others are cooperating on this occasion in the furtherance of the theme "Forward Through the Ages."

"Christians, as individuals, witness to their belief that prayer is a world power for good," the Mayor stated. "As a group they unite to strengthen this power for good in the world."

This will be the 75th anniversary of this Day.

Four services for children will be held in addition to the two services for adults.

Three of these services will be held in churches at Newton Corner next Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 1:30 before the regular classes in religion.

Children of the first and second grades will attend the service at Grace Church; those of the fifth and sixth grades the service will be at the United Presbyterian Church.

Another service for children will be held at the Second Church in Newton, Congregational in West Newton on Sunday morning, Feb. 12, at 10:30 o'clock. All children will be welcome at any of these services.

The eighth annual Drama Festival, tomorrow, Friday, at 8:15 p.m., will take place in the Newton High School auditorium, Newtonville. The faculty directors are Helen Ryan and William B. Spink.

First presented will be "Noah," under student director Leslie Garber. The second play, by students of Newton South High, is the comedy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," directed by Debby Isaacs. sens who no longer desire to maintain large homes but wish to remain in the Garden City. It was pointed out that there is a lack of such facilities in Newton.

Construction of high rise apartments is permitted in Newton as result of an ordinance enacted by the city on June 22, 1959 known as Zone F.

After conducting a survey of all possible proposals for the site, it was felt that the apartment buildings are the ideal plan. The buildings are planned for erection in the lowest level of the site near Strong's Pond, and with the abutting homes averaging a distance of about 1000 feet on higher terrain. Rents would range from $175 to $275 monthly.

Traffic studies made by Whitman & Howard have indicated that the construction of a new road from the development parallel to the Newton-Boston line would reduce the congestion at Commonwealth Ave. and Lake St. The land is presently zoned for 15,000 foot single family house lots. If single family homes were to be constructed, the developers would have to utilize the entire 80 acres for construction of 143 homes. However, because of the high land costs, only cheap homes could be erected. This type development would attract families with children increasing educational costs and providing less revenue to the city.

An alternative to the high rise development plans for the land would be the purchase of the site by a charitable, educational or religious organization. This, however, would mean a loss of tax revenue and possible erection of high rise buildings because of exemptions from zoning restrictions by those organizations.

Meet Your Visiting Nurse

Miss Virginia Jackson is in charge of the Well Baby Conference at the Auburndale Club, where she assists the attending physician with examinations, physical examinations and consultations.

Although a recent member of the staff of the Newton Visiting Nurse Association, a Red Feather agency, she is a familiar figure to the residents of Auburndale and Newton Lower Falls.

Here she puts in busy days giving bedside care to the sick of all ages and makes physical therapy visits as well as follow-up visits to help mothers of conference babies.

The importance of nutrition in the growth and development of the child is one of the areas of teaching that Miss Jackson, a graduate of Mount Auburn Hospital School of Nursing, B.S. Boston College School of Nursing, particularly enjoys in her family visits.

Weeks Jr. High Executive Board Plans Seminars

Plans for the next meeting and an interim report of the Values Study Committee highlighted the recent meeting of the Executive Board of the Weeks Junior High School P.T.A. in Newton, presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jarrell.

Mrs. Malcolm Knowles, program chairman, described a series of seminars to be held in March. These will be designed to acquaint parents with the various aspects of the different programs at Weeks.

Now in its third year, the Values Committee is studying areas where children feel conflict in making decisions. Among the values being investigated are those involving honesty versus expediency, conformity as opposed to individual values and self-interest versus social feelings. Miss Mary Hines, teacher chairman of the committee described the methods being used to evaluate the responses of the students.

A scholarship of $250 was added to the two $500 scholarships awarded annually by the Weeks P.T.A. to Newton High School graduates who are weeks alumnae. Mrs. Arnold Mork, Education Chairman, and Mrs. Francis Woodbridge of the Clothing Exchange, reported on a meeting they attended in preparation for the selection of this year's scholarship recipients. Letters from winners, Richard Siegel of Tufts and Barbara Gordon of Colby were read.

By vote of the Executive Board, contributions will be made to the Scholarship Committee of the Newton American Field Service Committee and WGBH-TV, Boston's Educational Television station.

Others participating in the discussion and giving reports were: Dr. John O'Neill, principal; Mrs. David Rubin, recording secretary; Mrs. Howard Boardman, corresponding secretary; Mitchell Simon and John Bizios, treasurer and associate treasurer; Lester Geist, budget chairman; Mrs. Harvey Karp, publicity chairman; Milton Levy, messenger editor; Mrs. Alfred Bickelman, council delegate; Mrs. Arthur Gordon and Mrs. Howard Shuman, hospital chairmen; Mrs. Mendel Waters and Mrs. Henry Pollock, clothing exchange; Mr. and Mrs. Alan Rosenberg, Halloween chairmen; Mrs. Arthur Laughland, room mothers; and Mrs. John Billinsky of the nominating committee.

Church School Enrollment Is Reported Heavy

Over 70 enrolled in the first sessions of the Newton Corner Week-day Church School upon opening day and the number is expected to exceed 80, Rev. Thomas Lehman, Dean of the School announced yesterday. Meeting on Tuesday afternoons in three of the four participating churches, study activities time, a "juice break," and games are included in the two hour sessions, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

The texts used are "Bible-centered" and are produced by the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A.

"Parents have been calling, expressing their enthusiasm for the program and the response of the children has been most encouraging," the Rev. Lehman reports. Participating churches are The United Presbyterian Church of Newton, Grace Episcopal Church, The Elliot Congregational Church, and the Newton Methodist Church. A feature of the school is the actual teaching of the ministers of the churches, thus having first-hand contact with the children of the community.

Thousands Protest Local Rezoning Moves

Stalemate In Gibbs-Volpe Road Parley With Callahan

A "summit" conference held at the State House yesterday in an attempt to reach a compromise on a route through Newton for a proposed toll road extension ended without resolving the dispute.

Governor John A. Volpe reported that no substantial progress in reaching an agreement was accomplished at the 90-minute meeting. However, the governor said a conference will be held between engineers for the City of Newton and the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, and that he plans to hold another session with Mayor Donald L. Gibbs and other principals next week.

Turnpike Authority Chairman William F. Callahan refused to accept a compromise plan offered by Gibbs for running the toll road over a route which would result in less destruction and a smaller property loss in Newton.

Callahan said it would require 18 months to map out plans for the route proposed by Gibbs.

The Mayor, in turn, stood firm in his opposition to building the turnpike along the route of the Boston & Albany road and declined to back down from his position.

Gibbs asserted he had no present intention of withdrawing the objection he has lodged with the Interstate Commerce Commission against the sale of the railroad tracks to the Turnpike Authority. He also indicated he still intends to carry his fight into Federal Court if his petition is rejected by the ICC.

While emphasizing that he has no desire to block or stall the much-discussed Prudential Center, Gibbs said he would not be fulfilling his responsibility to the people of Newton if he did not battle a project which would cause as much havoc in Newton as would the suggested toll road plan.

Legal experts estimate Gibbs can hold up the toll project for a year or even two years if he carries his fight through the Federal Courts.

As Mayor Gibbs entered the Governor's office for yesterday's so-called "summit" conference, Newton was still buzzing from the shocked realization of the full impact the toll road route proposed by Turnpike Authority Chairman Callahan would have on the city.

No Decisions Until March After Big Monday Hearing

Two petitions for changes in zone to pave the way for construction of luxury apartments and motels in Newton on land no longer occupied by country clubs were taken under advisement Monday night by the Claims and Rules Committee of the Board of Aldermen and the Newton Planning Board.

However, no decision on the petitions is likely before the middle of March. Nearly 1,000 residents, most of whom were organized in opposition to the proposed zoning changes, attended the hearings which were presided over by Harry H. Ham, chairman of the Claims and Rules Committee.

One concerned plans for a $12-$15 million "open" land apartment development on 38 acres of the Commonwealth Country Club and the other would permit construction of two motels on the Sidney Hill Country Club property.

Some 500 persons appeared to oppose the construction of the apartment project, which would be the largest apartment development in New England. The plan calls for seven high rise apartments containing a total of 856 one and two-bedroom apartments; the remaining 97 per cent of the property would be open for a nine-hole golf course, the clubhouse, swimming pool, parking and landscaping.

Rentals would range from $175 to $225 for senior citizens "now rattling around in large houses" who want to stay in Newton.

Atty. Harris A. Reynolds, spokesman for the Chestnut

Hill Park Associates, said the group planning to build the apartment complex if the zoning change is granted, is made up of Newton residents engaged not "in a speculative venture but in a long-range income producing proposition."

Reynolds maintained the apartment complex would yield some $400,000 to $500,000 to Newton in annual taxes, compared to the some $75,000 which would be derived from taxes if single homes are built on the location.

There will be no shopping area or gas station in the development, he said. Atty. Reynolds asserted also that the city would not have to provide new schools or other services which would be required if the land is developed for single homes.

"The proposed buildings," he said, "in design and location, and all traffic accesses, open areas, and recreational facilities, have been planned with a view to promoting the best interests of the city itself, convenience, morals and welfare."

Real estate operator F. Paul Morgan said that 20 acres of the Country Club land in Boston already have been purchased by the petitioners who will construct either single homes or garden-type apartments there.

Former Alderman Richard H. Lovell presented signatures of 190 residents in opposition to the project and asserted:

"We see many widespread damaging effects if such an intensive crowding of hundreds of families into this land is allowed, contrary to the protective standards which our zoning has maintained for 40 years."

Air Tragedy Hits This City

Young Newton Skater, Sister, Die In Crash

Gregory Kelley, 16-year-old figure skating star from Newton, a member of the Skating Club of Boston, and his sister, Natalie, 23, who often traveled with her brother on trips, went to their death in the crash of the Sabena Boeing jet airliner just outside Brussels, Belgium, yesterday.

The youthful Newtonites, son and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Kelley, 1032 Centre Street, Newton Centre, perished with the entire American skating team and a total passenger list of 72 on the giant Belgian airliner, about to land after a trans-Atlantic flight from New York.

Gregory, an ace skating competitor, had won many championships in the seven years he had skated under the colors of the Boston Skating Club. He was a member of the United States team scheduled to compete in the world championship tournament at Prague, Czechoslovakia.

He held the national senior men's compulsory championship. He had annexed an impressive list of ice-skating honors including U. S. National Novice Men's in 1957, Eastern Junior Men's in 1958, and U. S. National Junior Men's in 1959. He had been skating since he was nine years old.

He attended the Sacred Heart High School in Newton until last year, when he transferred to Colorado Springs to concentrate on practice for the national championships.

His sister, Natalie, his mentor and frequent traveling companion on skating trips, was a graduate of Emmanuel College, Class of 1955, and was a science teacher at Ashland High School.

Dr. and Mrs. Kelley have four other children, Judith, 27, and three brothers, Vincent, Jr., 26, Stephen, 24, and Kenneth, 28.

Mann School Group Lists Dangers In Old Building

A well attended meeting was held at the Horace Mann School on Monday night when the entire Newton School Committee were guests of the Horace Mann Building and Safety Committee in order to examine at close hand certain aspects of the school which the Building and Safety Committee charge are unsafe and unsound. A new school is sought in the area.

School Board Adopts Guide For Building

The Newton School Committee has adopted a priority capital outlay program, and the superintendent of schools, Dr. Charles E. Brown, said he considered it a "planning program — we don't know what the final solution to the high school problem will be." The program included new building and renovation.

The priority program first listed the Oak Hill addition, which is scheduled for start of construction on March 1. Next came the addition to the Murray Road elementary school, and third was the Meadowbrook Junior High School addition.

Newton High School was placed first on recommendations for rehabilitation, followed by the northside elementary school report; Bigelow and Day Junior High Schools and Hyde School Play rooms. Newton Junior College was added to the tentative program.

Volpe Feud With McLernon May Result in Ouster Move

Whether Governor Volpe will attempt to fire blunt, outspoken MTA General Manager Thomas J. McLernon is a question that is the subject of extensive discussion on Beacon Hill.

Speculation along that line has quickened as a result of an editorial published in two newspapers owned by Volpe attacking McLernon and urging the Governor to oust the MTA boss.

That sounds like a case of a man telling himself publicly what he ought to do, but it could be that Volpe and his top advisers were sending up a trial balloon to determine public reaction.

McLernon never has been a favorite of the Governor's, and he embarrassed Volpe publicly by rejecting an MTA contract the Governor had approved.

That embarrassment was not lessened by the fact that McLernon finally accepted a contract which was less costly than the one to which Volpe had agreed.

Co-chairmen, Area Captains Named In Fluoride Campaign

Appointment of co-chairmen and eight area captains for a drive to obtain broad voter support for a petition to place the issue of fluoridation for Newton on the ballot as a referendum question in the 1961 city election was announced last night by the Newton Citizens' Committee for Dental Health, at a kickoff meeting for the drive held at the Newton Highlands Workshop, 72 Columbus Street.

Co-chairmen for the drive, whose aim is to collect by the end of March the signatures of at least 2,500 registered Newton voters on the petition, are Mr. Robert Tennant of West Newton and Mr. Irving Fishman of Newton Centre. The petition calls upon city officials to include the fluoridation referendum on next Fall's election ballot, in accordance with the State law requiring that each community vote favorably on a local referendum if it is desired to fluoridate its public water supplies.

of rooms, Longwood Towers has just about 900 rooms—300 in each of three buildings. Here we are told there will be 328 one-bedroom units, plus 530 two-bedroom units for a total of 3540 rooms, about four times the total capacity of Longwood Towers.

Mr. Lovell listed the following "specific detriments and problems" which would result:

"Generally greater intensity of use, overtaxing of all of the city services, air and smoke pollution, overcrowding of schools, need for a new ladder company for the fire department and increased traffic."

Also speaking in opposition were Willian. Carmen, chairman of the Commonwealth Improvement Association, former Alderman Hirsch Sharf, a member of the Newton Zoning Board of Appeals and Paul Morrice, a design engineer.

Plans for construction of two motels at the front of the existing clubhouse at the Sidney Hill Country Club were outlined at the hearing by former Alderman Ernest G. Angevine. He said the petitioners, the Hammond Associates, have been losing money since the club was built five years ago on the former Kincaid Farm.

He said the proposed motels would help promote the club's activities and bring $31,000 a year net to the city.

Atty George Michaels presented a petition signed by 525 persons in opposition to the petition. He asserted that residents of the area already are bothered by "a blast of light, a babble of voices and the beat of cha-cha-cha" from the clubhouse.

Political Highlights

This upheld the contention of those observers who had maintained that the Governor should not have offered himself as an arbiter in the MTA dispute in the first place.

There is no doubt that Volpe would like to get rid of McLernon. One of the Governor's complaints against McLernon is that he remained silent while ex-Governor Furcolo added a couple of high-salaried officials to the MTA payroll. Volpe also does not like the way McLernon has sounded off at times and blasted various elements of the community.

Two big questions apparently confront Volpe in connection with a possible ouster of McLernon. One is whether he could win such a fight if he started it. The other is the amount of furore he might cause if he did undertake to remove McLernon.

A lot of people, including practically all the MTA employees, would cheer Volpe if he moved to fire McLernon. The two MTA strikes, one last month and the other last August, were both at least partly protests against McLernon.

But a number of influential officials in the cities and towns which must pay the MTA deficit, don't want McLernon removed. They feel he is a competent railroad man and that he may be able to cut down the losses of the deficit-ridden transit system. They want him given a real chance to show what he can do.

McLernon has a long-term contract with the MTA. He declares that he has no intention of quitting and that if he leaves Boston it will be because he gets fired, not because he resigns.

There is only one way Volpe can abrogate McLernon's contract and oust the fiery MTA boss. That is to push through a legislative reorganization under which the MTA is officially abolished and a new agency created under a different name.

Volpe probably could not get such a bill through the Legislature if it were known that one of his objectives was to give McLernon the heave-ho.

When Volpe announced in his inaugural address that he proposed to reorganize and overhaul the MTA, it was assumed that he merely desired to fire the present MTA trustees and appoint new ones, as practically every Governor has done since the MTA was created back in the Bradford administration. A reorganization bill of that nature undoubtedly would have been passed.

But editorials in newspapers owned by Volpe and columns by political writers friendly to the Governor have made it plain that Volpe also would like to give McLernon the axe.

Fluoridation Query

Editor, Newton Graphic:

At the February meeting of the Carr School P.T.A., Dr. Phillips, our city health officer, spoke and showed a movie on the value of fluoridation.

During the question period which followed, I asked Dr. Phillips' opinion on the following statements from recent issues of Consumers' Union magazine, available in Newton Library:

1. The use of Vitamin C in pill form or in enriching food can be undesirable when drinking water is fluoridated as the extra intake of Vitamin C has been shown by research to cause an increase in fluoride retention in the bones.

2. Studies at Louisiana State University show that fluoride can be added to one-half pint of milk during school lunch with effects similar to those claimed for total fluoridation.

3. Dr. Frederick J. Stare, chairman of the Nutrition Department at Harvard University School of Public Health, says it is his view that the battle can be resolved by forgetting the water and leaving the job to greater use of fish in the diet.

I was not able to make any further statement and was later accused of having been rude to Dr. Phillips, the invited guest of the P.T.A.

I believe, however, that it was very unfair to present one side of such a hot issue in an election year. Whatever the intention of the program committee, the fact is that Dr. Phillips was influencing votes for fluoridation and that some of these people may never have another chance to hear the opposition.

To the gentleman who asked Dr. Phillips just what the opposition position is, may I cite one of many things the doctor never mentioned:

Opponents claim that since fluoride accumulates in bones and in large amounts causes cancer in rats, it will be at least 30 years before its safety can be proved.

The fact that people have been drinking natural fluorine in their water in some parts of the country for decades without apparent harm is questioned by many scientists who claim the mineral con-position of the water or associated factors not yet determined, may be preventing harm in these areas.

At least, it's food for thought and I for one would like to hear some honest debate before I decide.

Open Letter

Editor, Newton Graphic:

Is there anything more disgraceful than the shameful neglect shown to the safety of the schoolchildren of Newton?

Why is it that we as parents can decide when to put an extra sweater on Johnny or Sue, or when it is too cold to play outside, yet most parents wouldn't think of keeping a child out of school unless permission is formally granted?

We have all been sending them to school against our better judgment, with our hearts in our mouth, because "Everyone else is."

A recent chain of phone calls made by a large group of mothers proved one thing: THE COMMERCIAL AREA MUST BE TAKEN CARE OF BEFORE THE SAFETY OF THE CHILDREN! The need or (greed), for the dollar going into the pocket of the merchants does not interest us parents. The loss of even one child does interest most of us! My children will not be in school unless the sidewalks as well as streets are plowed. Most parents in this neighborhood are planning to do the same. Let US as parents be the ones to decide whether school keeps by judging for ourselves whether the sidewalks and streets are safe for our children!

Great Decisions has a record enrollment in Newton this year. In its fourth year the Decisions program is mushrooming forth to greater numbers all over our nation. Here in Newton the participants have doubled over the 1960 number.

There is an open meeting being held at the Newtonville Library meeting room every Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Irving Fishman as the hosts. All Newtonites are welcome to join in the discussions. To sign up for this group or for further information call Mrs. Martin Karlin, the community chairman, at LA 7-0804.

The topic this week is "Soviet Challenge and World Leadership." The following week is France and Western Unity. Later Japan—Future of an Asian Ally, U. N. and Explosive Africa and other important international problems will be discussed.

Other groups participating each week are as follows: Union Church in Waban, sponsored by Mrs. Fred Harvey; the Newtonville Methodist Church, sponsored by Mr. George Kent; two at the Second Congregational Church sponsored by Mrs. Anton Fried and Mr. Loomis Patrick. At the Newton Centre Women's Club, two groups sponsored by Mrs. Daniel J. Sheehan; two groups at Temple Shalom sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. David Cooper; the First Congregational Church, sponsored by Miss Louise Walworth and moderated by Dr. Harold Berman; at the Baptist Home of Mass. sponsored by Mrs. A. F. Unford; the Temple Emmanuel Couple's Club sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. George Michaels.

There will be "at home" groups sponsored by: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mintz, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waite, Mr. and Mrs. James Quinn, Dr. and Mrs. Myron Stein, Mr. Seth Kalberg, Mrs. Arnold Rosoff, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Karlin, Mr. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Charles Woodbury.

There are many High School students participating under the direction of Mr. Donn Kesselheim at Newton North High and Mr. Altree and Mr. Henderson at Newton South High School. Even many alert Junior High School teachers are incorporating the program into their curriculum.

Mrs. Karlin emphasizes that it is not too late to join in the discussions. The background kits are still available at the Newtonville and Newton Center Libraries. This is an opportunity for everyone to air their ideas and questions in foreign affairs—and to meet with other interested and informed people to learn and to study these troubled areas.

Everyone is also being urged to watch the coordinated Channel 2 program every Thursday evening at 8 p.m. on which political experts will also discuss the topics and answer questions phoned in by the listening audience.

throughout the building; the huge air heating ducts leading from the basement to each classroom, thus creating fire hazards; combustible material stored in the basement where the furnace is located, and the fact that the basement also is used as a playroom in bad weather.

Proponents of a new school for the area also pointed out the third floor assembly auditorium as a menace to the safety of pupils.

More than 200 children are housed as pupils in the school where classes are taught from kindergarten through the 6th grade, with children from 4 to 12 years. Principal Kenneth LaFlamme attended the meeting and explained certain factors in the building as mentioned in the Safety Committee's brochure. Supt. Charles Brown also was in attendance.

Eighteen hundred signatures had previously been obtained on a petition and filed some time ago with the Board of Aldermen seeking a new school to be erected at, or near, the present site.

A spokesman for the Building Committee said that the situation at the Mann School has been under discussion for a number of years and that a new school has been sought since 1956.

Newton's First 1961 Auto Death

The first automobile fatality of the year in Newton was recorded last Friday (Feb. 10) when 10-year-old Kevin Finn of Brookline died at Boston City Hospital from injuries suffered when he was struck by a car while crossing the Worcester Turnpike.

The boy was crossing near 27 Boylston St., at the Brookline line with his twin brother when he was struck. He was revived twice after being apparently dead, once by a team of doctors who massaged his heart in the operating room at Boston Children's Hospital. He suffered a fractured left arm, leg and head injuries.

SHOULD NEWTON ADOPT COMPULSORY MASS MEDICATION?

No! No! 2,500 Times No!

★ Do you know that over 2,500 cities and towns in America, containing 60 million people, have rejected fluoridation of the water supply?

★ Do you know that over 100 communities have stopped fluoridation after having tried it out? Communities in Massachusetts discarding it are Hudson, North Andover, North Hampton, Reading and Williamstown. After seven years, Concord, New Hampshire voters stopped fluoridation by a 2 to 1 majority.

BECAUSE: WHY?

1. FLUORIDATION IS COMPULSORY MASS MEDICATION
"Fluoridation of public water supplies should be regarded as a prophylactic measure for reducing tooth decay at the community level." Journal of American Medical Association, March 29, 1958.

2. FLUORIDATION INFRINGES INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND FREEDOM OF CHOICE — IT IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL
On July 5, 1960, Circuit Judge Douglas L. C. Jones ruled that a St. Louis County Missouri fluoridation ordinance deprived citizens of "life, liberty, and property without due process of law and is in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and is therefore void and unconstitutional."

3. FLUORIDATION IS COSTLY AND WASTEFUL
Over 99% of our water supply is used for purposes other than drinking. Only a fraction of this is consumed by children. The rest of the water is used for other purposes such as bathing, watering the lawn, manufacturing, etc. An expenditure of approximately $80,000.00 would be required to initiate fluoridation in Newton. The annual operating cost would be about $10,000.00. The Newton Health Department could furnish free fluoride tablets to the parents of every child in the community desiring them. Cost to the Taxpayer — less than $750.00 a year.

ALTERNATIVE METHODS OF INDIVIDUAL FLUORIDE TREATMENT ARE AVAILABLE AT LOW COST FOR THOSE WHO DESIRE IT

Fluoride tablets, topical application, and fluoride toothpaste have been endorsed by the American Dental Association as being effective in reducing and preventing dental decay.

HELP PRESERVE INDIVIDUAL FREEDOM by supporting a scientifically valid program for dental health based on good nutrition, oral hygiene and if necessary, use of fluoride treatment in measured dosage as prescribed and supervised by competent medical and dental authority. If you believe in this principal of individual choice and would like to help, please write or call Thomas A. Reed, Chairman, Citizen's Rights Association of Newton, 11A Highland Avenue. 13 Newton Seniors Gain Merit Scholarship Finals

Thirteen seniors at Newton High School and Newton South High School have been named Finalists in the 1960-61 National Merit Scholarship Program competition and have been awarded Certificates of Merit. Principals Richard W. Mechem and Donald K. Davidson announced that the following students have received the Certificates which attest to their high academic promise:

Philip A. Alpert, Paula L. Brenner, Laura E. Cohen, Patricia Z. Deata, David K. Devore, Ray A. Frieden, Shephard C. Golub, David L. Maltz, Mark A. Peters, Ralph M. Pollack, Joel L. Selig, David M. Shaw, Elliot H. Sherman.

The seniors attained Finalist status by their distinguished performance on two tests and upon endorsement by their high schools. About six-tenths of one per cent of the seniors in each state received the awards. Approximately 8,800 students in the 50 states and in United States were honored.

"The Certificate of Merit winners represent our most valuable national resource, our talented youth," said John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. "These exceptionally able students deserve the recognition and encouragement of every citizen concerned with the future of America."

The Merit Scholars, to be announced April 27, will be selected from the Finalist group. They will receive scholarships from the resources of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and from sponsoring business corporations,

Newton Man Slugged And Robbed in Hub

Boston police are virtually without clues to the slugging of Allan D. Kaufman, 23, of 40 Fuller St., Newton, and robbery of $1570 early Sunday in the kitchen of a diner on Brookline Ave., in Boston.

The thief or thieves also took his overcoat and his father's red Thunderbird which was abandoned in the Back Bay several hours later. The money represented receipts from the Brookline Ave., diner and one on Memorial Drive, also owned by his father, Samuel Kern of 42 Fellsmore Rd., Newton.

foundations, associations, and individuals. In 1959-60, 115 sponsors participated in the Merit Program.

Merit Scholarships are four-year awards, and carry stipends that range from $100 a year to $1500 a year. Each stipend is individually determined on the basis of need. The amount is based upon family resources, summer earnings, and college costs, all of which vary for each winner.

Pre-school Age Children Show Drop in Newton

Newton's total of pre-school children dropped to 6768 this year compared with 7542 last year on the basis of the police listing which has been completed six days ahead of schedule according to Capt. Charles E. Walker.

The assessed poll lists completed 68,079 cards in 35 days, against 64,998 cards in 1960 in 41 listing days.

This year's total does not include residents who could not be reached by the lists. Such persons are urged to fill in the yellow slips left at their homes and return them to City Clerk Monte G. Bashas at City Hall.

Cards listing the number of pre-school children should be mailed to the Newton Public Schools, 430 Walnut St., Newtonville.

ANTHONY MASSIMINO

Party Consultant Opens New Office

Anthony Massimino, of 440 Hyde Park Avenue, Roslindale, Boston College graduate celebrated party consultant, and local restaurateur, today announced the expansion of his enterprises with the opening of a new office at 431 Hyde Park Avenue.

This new office he explained, will be dedicated solely to the functions of party consulting and advertising-public relations counseling.

He will dedicate his full attention to the arrangements of weddings, anniversaries, showers, deb parties, testimonials, banquets, conventions, graduation parties, and dances.

Following his graduation from Boston College, Massimino was graduated from radio station WTSN and television station WNAZ-TV.

Having a keen interest in politics, in 1958 Mr. Massimino was the runner up candidate for the House of Representatives in the 17th Suffolk District and in 1959 a candidate for the Boston City Council. Then he lent a helping hand to Mayor John F. Collins and Governor John A. Volpe in their respective campaigns.

Arrangements by Massimino is a unique service. For only with Massimino, you can choose your own location, caterer, cake, florist, photographer, or other services at his office and know the prices at the Monticello as compared with the Commonwealth Country Club or any other similar service, and still arrange the affair either completely or in part through Massimino at both the service of your choice and at the same price.

Starting off his new program for full time attention to the arrangement of parties, Mr. Massimino is inviting all engaged couples to a dance, bride and groom fashion show, and display at the Commonwealth Country Club in Chestnut Hill on Tuesday evening, February 28th at 7:30 P.M.

Sleek Lines, Beauty Of Models Feature '61 Cars

EXCITING NEW OLDSMOBILE — The all-new, smaller Oldsmobile, the F-85, will be an exciting addition to the smart line of new cars seen this year at Washington's Birthday gala "Open House" observance. It is offered as a six-passenger, four door sedan or four door station wagon.

Many Oldsmobile Models For Holiday Inspection

Frost Motors, Inc., 399 Washington Street, Newton, will have the welcome mat out for the capacity turnout of interested visitors and prospective buyers who will attend the gala Washington's Birthday unveiling of the new line of Cadillac and Oldsmobile cars to be shown next week.

The 1961 Oldsmobile Dynamic 88's, Super 88's and 98's in eighteen different models incorporate the greatest changes in styling and design to be introduced by the division in many years. The new line of cars will be introduced to the public during the holiday "Open House."

"In addition to their completely new, fresh and distinctive look, many design changes for passenger comfort have been made to make the 88's and 98's more attractive than ever before. Head room is increased, the cars are much easier to get in and out of, and seating comfort is greatly improved. "This, together with many mechanical advancements, makes the 88's and 98's the most alert, best performing, most comfortable and smoothest riding and handling cars in the division's history."

Urge Plans For Council Of the Aging

A study committee of the Newton Community Council has recommended unanimously the creation of a Newton Council for the Aging to coordinate activities for older people and to be an information center about community resources.

Such a Council would fill the gap between what is needed and what is available. The impetus for the study followed last May's meeting of the Mass. Council for the Aging preparing for the White House conference held last month. The request for the study was made by the mayor.

The study group recommended that the mayor's committee include both city officials, such as the recreation director, the health officer, the welfare agent and the superintendent of schools, and non officials such as representatives from senior citizen groups, the Visiting Nurse Association, the Family Service Bureau, the employment office, the clergy and other interested citizens.

Fluoridation Is Subject Of Carr Meeting

Dr. Harry Phillips, Newton public health officer, was the guest speaker at the recent February meeting of the Carr School PTA. He discussed fluoridation.

Inasmuch as the fluoridation of public drinking water is one health measure which will be voted on by Newton voters in the November 1961 election, Dr. Phillips spoke about the far reaching effects of the process. He also showed a movie, "The Value of Fluoridation."

Mrs. Gertrude Motherway, Carr School nurse, also was a speaker at the meeting. She discussed her work at the Carr School, and two other schools under her supervision. Robert S. Burkhardt, Carr PTA president, presided at the meeting.

Present were parents of Carr School children, members of the PTA executive board, Principal J. Kenneth LaFlamme, and teachers at the school.

Awards for the most parents present were won by Mrs. O'Reilly's second grade class, and Mrs. Stables' third grade class.

Refreshments were served in charge of Mrs. Myron Greenside and Mrs. Frank McKenna.

1961 RAMBLER UNVEILED — A four-door station wagon has been added to the newly-styled Rambler American line for 1961, along with a two-door convertible. All models are built on a wheel-base of 100 inches. The exciting Rambler line will be on view over the Washington's Birthday week open house.

Rambler Line Of '61 Cars Feature Many Innovations

Gene Brown Motors, Inc., 742 Beacon street, Newton Centre, dealer for the Rambler, Metropolitan and Volvo automobiles, is anticipating a large turnout of interested visitors at the annual Washington's Birthday "Open House" to be held at the Beacon street showrooms next week.

Major engineering innovations highlight the 1961 line of Rambler Six and V-8 models announced today by American Motors. The new models of the automobile that touched off the compact car revolution will be designated the "Classic" series, and will go on view at the Washington's Birthday Open House.

The Rambler Classic Six features a new six-cylinder engine with a die-cast aluminum block, the first aluminum engine block produced in America for passenger car use by the die-cast method. The new engine weighs 80 pounds less than the comparable cast iron engine on the 1960 Rambler and provides new ease of handling and steering.

The new aluminum-block engine represents a major breakthrough in lightweight automotive design. Production was preceded by more than six years of American Motors' design experience with die-cast aluminum engines and the development of specialized production facilities costing more than five million dollars.

This advanced Rambler Six engine has undergone more than two million miles of actual driving tests on proving ground, highway and speed track, and has demonstrated outstanding characteristics of ruggedness, efficiency and durability.

Basic improvements in the 1961 Ramblers include: New ceramic-armored muffler and tailpipe as standard equipment, which provides a highly durable, corrosion-resistant exhaust system which virtually eliminates the costly problem of frequent replacement.

A completely new heating and ventilating system provides more efficient heating and more effective distribution of fresh air. In addition the front seat cushions have been redesigned to permit better air circulation to the rear seat area.

Headlights and Highlights From Newton High School

By FRANCES WITTY

BUSY DAYS . . . Last weekend Newton High students attended school athletic events, the annual Drama Festival and the first Winter Carnival Dance. Nevertheless, they found time for much homework, and seniors squeezed in time to complete some last minute college applications.

"STAR DUST" . . . On Friday night before a standing-room-only crowd in the Newton High School auditorium, three judges declared "Disraeli" the winner of the 1961 Drama Festival.

The judges also awarded special commendations to the following performers: Judith Bates, Richard Blocker, Victor Aronow, Jeffrey Hahn, Linda Dahl, Robert Factor and Nancy Freiman from N.H.S. and Janet Mullen, Barbara Goodbar, and Priscilla Kanter from N.S.H.S.

Mr. William B. Spink and Miss Helen M. Ryan produced and directed the three plays. Rosemarie Fiumara was the Student General manager of the two N.H.S. plays, "Noah" by Andre Obay and "Disraeli," by Lolus N. Parker.

Leslie Garber was the student Director of "Noah." The cast included James Callanan, James Shane, Maxine Stone, Judith Bates, Penny Eskot, Robert Spinner, Mary Corey, Richard Blocker, Paula Needle, James Bilezekian, Robert Copeland, Barbara Ross, Stephen Axelrod, and Paula Salow.

William Krinsky, Victor Aronow, Jeffrey Hahn, Linda Dahl, Pamela Saphire, Robert Factor, Nancy Freiman and Ira Grossman made up the cast of the winning "Disraeli." Sandra Shane was the Student Director.

Student Chairman of the various N.H.S. committees were: Costume, Joyce Alban and Marylou Woods; Publicity, Jane Maloff; Make-up, Carol Fox and Grace Wellock; Tickets, Barbara Sullivan; Properties, Janet Woodcock, Janet Marr, Helen Greenberg (Acting Chairman in the absence of Miss Marr); Ushers, Robert Johnson; Posters, Diana Maloney; Front of the House, Bette Joselle; Program, Sarah Pierce. There were also Scenic Design and Stage committees.

"... TRY DANCING!" . . . Last Saturday the Sophomore Class sponsored the Winter Carnival Dance to climax the Winter Carnival celebrations. The slow sale of tickets was blamed on the attraction of this Saturday's "Sayonara," the combined N.H.S.-N.S.H.S. Junior Prom which will be held at Newton South High.

NEW DESIGN . . . A new deal will soon be on sale through house representatives. The Associates Council sponsored the designing of the new deal through a committee of four: Bob Johnson, Roy Reiss, Neil Grossman and Karen Stone, each of the six houses will receive a limited supply of the deals.

Girls' Sports have offered a lot of new and exciting experiences to N.H.S. girls. For the past several weeks girls have been learning "knee drops and seat drops" on the trampoline. Earlier, fencing classes had moved out from the gym to the corridors and cafeteria for more room for their fencing matches. Many girls leave the locker room speaking of the new tap-dance step they learned or of how much fun the Virginia reel really is.

With all of the new ideas and facilities, however, the old popular sports are not forgotten. They include basketball, apparatus, badminton and volleyball during the indoor season.

Community Center Courses Will Resume Next Tuesday

Cake decorating, bridge lessons, lectures on time-saving in the kitchen and meal planning, sculpture, and dancing lessons for junior high school boys and girls are some of the new courses starting at the Newton Community Center, 429 Cherry St., West Newton, within the next two weeks.

Repeated by popular request for the benefit of those who were unable to be taken care of in the Fall Course, the Cake Decorating classes will start on Tuesday, Feb. 21st, at 7:30 p.m. There will be eight sessions under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Lucas, professional decorator.

There are openings available in the adult sculpture classes which are also held on Tuesday evenings from 8 to 10 p.m., under the skilled direction of Miss Tomas Gorin, talented sculptress who is in this country on scholarship. Miss Gorin attended the Armin School of Art in Haifa, Israel, and is now studying at the school of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston. Her services offer an unusual opportunity for anyone interested in sculpture, whether beginners or more advanced.

Because youth leaders frequently urge parents of junior and senior high school boys and girls to consider seriously the benefits of social dancing lessons for young people, Mr. William Byrne, the director of the Community Center, puts special emphasis on the importance of the Tuesday evening classes held at the Center from 7:45 to 8:45, under the direction of Katharine Dickson Studios of Cambridge.

Of particular interest to homemakers is the series of courses offered at the Center 6 to 10, Gr. 6 to Eng. 4 Gr. 3; Cecil C. Linton from Eng. 8, Gr. 6 to Eng. 8 Gr. 4; George L. McMahon from Lad. 2, Gr. 7 to Eng. 8, Gr. 3; William V. LaPointe from Eng. 8, Gr. 3 to Lad. 2, Gr. 7; Joseph V. Burns from Eng. 3, Gr. 4 to Eng. 3, Gr. 6; Joseph S. Daniele from Eng. 3, Gr. 6 to Eng. 3, Gr. 4.

New appointments to the department and their assignments are: Dominic A. Sera to Eng. 2 and 5, Gr. 2; Richard A. Sala to Eng. 6 and 10, Gr. 6; William F. Greelev to Lad. 1, Gr. 4; Ronald F. Murphy to Eng. 3 and 8, Gr. 7; Norman J. Cadman to Eng. 4, Gr. 4.

1961 Ford Line Features Sparkling Fresh Designs

Corcoran Motors, Route 9, Wellesley Hills, is featuring the sparkling new 1961 line of Ford, Falcon, Taunus and Jaguar cars and will display models at the annual Washington's Birthday exhibition next week and over the holiday.

The 1961 Ford has a completely new, fresh appearance in the classic Ford tradition of straight-line design, new dimensions—nearly four inches shorter and two inches narrower than in 1960—for greater maneuverability, and major engineering improvements such as 30,000-mile lubrication, that will result in lower maintenance costs and more care-free operation.

The 1961 Ford passenger cars carry a written dealer warranty extended to 12,000 miles or one full year, whichever comes first. Ford Motor Company was first to announce the extended warranty period.

Among the engineering and design improvements in the 1961 Ford which make it "a car that virtually takes care of itself" are: —A new grease and lubrication system that extends the normal chassis lubrication interval to 30,000 miles; New, heavier brakes that adjust themselves; Specially processed underbody parts, including galvanized body panels below the doors, that resist rust and corrosion; Aluminum mufflers that are double-wrapped for three times normal life; A 250 per cent increase in the thickness of anodizing on aluminum surfaces for brighter, longer-lasting grille, headlamp and tail lamp trim.

These features, plus Ford's Diamond Lustre finishes that never need waxing and the Full-Flow oil filtering system that permits a 4,000-mile oil change interval, mean fewer inconvenient service stops and more savings with the new Fords.

The shorter, narrower dimensions and easier steering of the 1961 Ford result in greater parking ease and maneuverability.

Inside, the passenger seating space offers "built for people" comfort and convenience. Front seats are foam-padded and the swept-back windshield pillars which eliminate the troublesome "dog-leg" make it easy to get in and out.

Road Parley-

Publication of official plans and maps of the Turnpike Authority bore out the accuracy of stories published in the Graphic last autumn reporting on the families who would be uprooted and the business establishments which would be torn down if the toll road were extended along the route picked by Callahan.

A strip across the city would be wiped out, resulting in the demolition of about 350 houses and business places valued at more than $4,000,000.

Gibbs went to yesterday's State House meeting with a counter proposition that the toll road be built along the Charles River, where it would cause far less destruction, and that it join the B & A roadbed near the Newton-Brighton line. That is a modified version of the route called for in the 1948 Master Highway Plan.

Under Callahan's plan the toll road would run from Weston through the Pigeon Hill section of Auburndale to the B & A roadbed at Hancock and Ash streets. Then it would be built along part of the roadbed and a broad strip of land on the southerly side of the railroad tracks.

More than a score of dwellings in a Negro community in West Newton would be demolished if the toll road is built where Callahan has planned it.

A number of business and banking establishments stand in the path of the toll road or its interchanges, as Callahan envisions them.

These include the Star Market on Washington street, the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company at Newton Corner, the Hubbard Drug Store and Elks Hall.

Spokesmen for the Star Market have declared that they intend to build a new and bigger market if the Callahan plan is carried forward.

The parish of the Myrtle Baptist Church would be hard hit by the Callahan toll road route.

The Rev. Louis Ford, pastor of the church, has met with both Callahan and the latter's aides in an attempt to intercede for his parishioners. He quoted Callahan, as saying that if the homes of his parishioners were taken they would be able to move into better dwellings than they now occupy. The clergyman said he didn't know how to interpret that comment.

An interchange in West Newton, which would include a large rotary, would cause substantial property destruction. Construction of the interchange would result in the demolition of about 20 homes on Hicks street.

Mayor Wins Major Toll Road Concessions

Gibbs-Callahan Feud May Be Settled Soon

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs won a number of major concessions this week in his battle with Turnpike Authority Chairman William F. Callahan over plans for extending the toll road through Newton.

As a result of the commitments gained by Gibbs, the widely publicized dispute between Gibbs and Callahan may be settled by a compromise agreement early next week.

At the present time Gibbs is awaiting the presentation of traffic study data to support the contention of Callahan that the toll road extension would not be financially feasible without an interchange at Newton Corner.

These are the major concessions won by Gibbs during his discussions with Callahan at meetings arranged by Governor John A. Volpe and Senate President John E. Powers.

1. Plans for the Newton Corner interchange will be modified in order to spare the Elks Building.

2. The Turnpike Authority will pay the City of Newton $250,000 for an old fire station on Washington street in West Newton which stands in the path of the proposed toll road.

3. Thirty-two homes in the Hicks street area of West Newton will be moved to a new location by the Turnpike Authority at a cost of $7,000 per dwelling for a total expense of $224,000. These homes are in a Negro community.

4. The Turnpike Authority will rebuild 23 bridges in the city and will assume the maintenance of those bridges except for plowing them. The bridges all will span the toll road.

5. The bridge on Commonwealth Avenue, above Auburndale Square, will be widened by the Turnpike Authority.

6. The bridge on Lowell avenue in Newtonville will be flared out to give it a better approach.

7. The route of the toll road near the Newton-Brighton line will be revised slightly to save about a dozen homes in the Hunnewell Hill section. This

An air pollution consultant and engineers were among qualified witnesses who described dangers which would result from an open air burner at a hearing Monday night against an order seeking to establish an Auburndale dump site.

The hearing was conducted by the Board of Aldermen and the Health Department and at the conclusion took no action on the order, which sought to set aside a 46.32 acre site of land as a refuse disposal area.

Aldermen Begin Study Of $23 Million Budget

The Newton Board of Aldermen, requested by Mayor Donald L. Gibbs "that you screen this budget carefully", this week began a study of the record-high budget of $23,533,028.84 for 1961.

This figure represented an increase of nearly $2 million over the budget figure for last year.

Mayor Gibbs, in his message accompanying the budget, said nearly two-thirds of the increase was due to School Department requests which are in excess of 1960 requests by $1,201,294.58. He added that the school requests contained $39,400 for the operation of the summer schools and $10,500 for additional personnel at the Junior College.

The entire budget shows an increase of $1,829,982.11 over last year. This represents $6 on the tax rate, but the Mayor explained that other factors are expected to keep the increase for this year between $3 and $5. The rate last year was $59.

Women Voters To Discuss Impact Of Newton Zoning

"From Acres to Zoning—Where is Newton Growing?" entitles the next series of discussion units, sponsored by the Newton League of Women Voters, to be held Feb. 28, March 1 and 2.

Mrs. Herbert Berman, chairman of the League Zoning Committee, explained that Newton has grown rapidly during the last 15 years and that the city has almost reached its saturation point with very little vacant land on which to build. After a year of research, Mrs. Berman's committee has compiled much information on zoning and its ramifications and has many timely questions to bring to the Newton League members for discussion.

"What is our conception of the future Newton?" "How do we treat transition areas—those areas that are changing from residential to business or industrial areas?" "What about conservation?" These are some of the basic questions facing not only league members but all Newtonites today.

Interested Newton women are invited to attend any of the eight unit discussion meetings scheduled as follows:

Tuesday, February 28, 9:45 a.m., Newton Lower Falls, at the home of Mrs. Joel Leighton, 31 Colgate Road; Tuesday, February 28, 7:45 p.m., Newton Highlands, at the National Weight And Measures Week In Newton

Mayor Donald L. Gibbs has officially proclaimed the week of March 1st through 7th as "National Weights and Measures Week" in Newton, according to the announcement from J. Ellis Bowen, Sealer of Weights and Measures.

Sealer Bowen pointed out the fact that the "Week" also will be observed nationally. The prime purpose is to foster more awareness, by the public, upon the importance of accurate weight and measure, especially in commercial transactions.

This awareness will assist the public in contributing to its own protection from error and fraud, Sealer Bowen stated.

Burglars Loot Home Next To Mayor Gibbs

The home of the next-door neighbor to Mayor Donald L. Gibbs was looted by robbers who carried away liquor, furs and silverware.

Police reported that the burglary occurred in the dwelling of William H. McAdams at 37 Claremont street. They said that the thieves carried away six cases of Scotch, furs, luggage, four silver trays, a silver pitcher, a silver serving set, a silver tea set and two silver candelabra.

Newton's 12 Red Feather Groups To Receive $258,200 in Grants

The twelve Newton Red Feather agencies, members of the Newton Community Chest, will receive a total of $258,200 in grants for their 1981 operations, according to an announcement today by David Berkman, Chest President.

Of this total, $243,300 has been allocated to Newton by United Community Services. These monies were part of the more than nine million raised this past fall by the United Fund of Greater Boston. The remainder of the amount granted will come from the limited Newton Chest reserves.

Although this grant from United Community Services is $3,302 more than received a year ago, the basic needs of the Newton Chest agencies are still not being met, according to George M. Shannon, chairman of the Chest Budget Committee.

His committee, which studied each budget request and which met with representatives of each agency in December, recommend a total of $286,000 to meet the needs of all agencies.

This amount represents adequate support to maintain, not to expand, the most necessary services that the agencies are providing to Newton, in the opinion of the budget committee.

"In order to survive on the amount almost $28,000 less, waiting lists must be lengthened, fewer programs would be available to our young people and the new needs of Newton's expanding population will be unmet unless the community supports the United Fund and its agencies to a greater extent," a statement said.

"The Newton Chest has encouraged agencies to increase their fees for services where appropriate, and in some cases plans for limited fund raising appeals have been approved."

Grants for each agency for 1981 are as follows: All Newton Music School, $2,500; Newton Boys' Club, $13,500; Norumbega Council, Boy Scouts of America, $23,700; Newton Community Center, $18,500; Family Service Bureau of Newton, $36,500; Newton Girl Scout Council, $20,800; Newton-Wellesley Hospital, $40,500; Rebecca Pomroy House, $10,500; St. Vincent de Paul, Newton Conference, $10,500; Newton Visiting Nurse Association, $25,300; Newton Y.M.C.A., $41,500, and the Newton Community Chest and Council, $14,400.

Members of the Newton Chest Budget Committee, which conducted an intensive study of the agency needs and whose recommendations were approved by the Newton Chest Board at a recent meeting, are: Dr. Frank L. Springer, 188 Quinobegun Rd., Waban; John Rubenstein, 171 Upland Rd., Newtonville; Carl E. Peterson, 135 Cornell St., N. Lower Falls; John J. White, 9 Parmenter Ter., West Newton; Elmer J. Gorn, 34 Laudholm Rd., Newton; Mrs. Frederick J. Wood, 29 Calvin Rd., Newtonville;

Also, P. Edward Davidson, 4 Cochituate Rd., N. Highlands; Norman E. MacNeil, 221 Otis St., West Newton; George L. Hicks, 5 Fairfield St., Newtonville; Gustav R. The students are: Roswitha Radhuber, of Linz, Austria; Silviana Colombo, of Turin, Italy; and Steen Hammerum, of Copenhagen, Denmark. They will discuss their impressions of the United States.

Mrs. Bergmark will also present a Newton High School student, Stanley Freeman, who went to Italy last year on the AFS program.

District Medical Society Hears Report On Recent Conference On The Aging

Widely publicized charges that the White House Conference on the Aging was "stacked" in favor of the American Medical Association were branded as false by three Massachusetts delegates to the conference who addressed members of the Charles River District Medical Society at their winter meeting Wednesday evening at Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

The three speakers, including one physician, reported that dissension was fostered from the outset by political figures who addressed the opening session.

Dr. Charles Bonner of Newton Centre, faculty member of the Boston University School of Medicine, and chief of the Rehabilitation Unit at Holy Ghost Hospital in Cambridge, noted that but 300 of the 2800 delegates present at the conference in Washington in January were doctors, and the physicians themselves held varying points of view regarding financing medical care for the aged through the social security program.

Dr. Bonner pointed out that the conference covered many aspects of care for the aged, and only a section of one out of 140 work groups was devoted to the controversy which made headlines on medical financing.

Among subjects pertinent to the health and welfare of elderly persons discussed were the impact of inflation on retired citizens, income maintenance, rehabilitation, social services, housing, education, religion, recreation, biological, medical, and psychological research in gerontology, and coordination of community, state, federal, and private organizations in their work for aged citizens.

Francis Looney, executive director of the Massachusetts Council on Aging, also a delegate, told the Charles River physicians that "controversy overshadowed our common aims" at the conference.

He urged establishment of a Council for Aging in each local community. The 2800 delegates never had a chance to vote on how they felt medical care for the aged should be financed, he said.

A third delegate, Dr. Thomas Plaut, of Newton, a psychologist at Harvard School of Public Health, reported the recommendation of one of the work groups that a National Institute of Aging be set up at the National Institutes of Health in Washington for medical research on problems of the elderly.

"It just happens that financing medical care has become a political issue and taken the forefront of many problems," he observed.

Misquoting the phrase "human population laboratories" brought more false publicity to the conference, Dr. Plaut observed.

Referring to large-scale studies of population trends to determine need of the aged, some news stories gave the false impression that plans were afoot to "lock up a large group of old people and study them in a laboratory."

For many older people, the psychologist noted, "isolation does not mean loneliness." Others can be around lots of people and still be lonely.

One recent study, he observed, has shown that elderly people who live as part of three-generation families by voluntary choice, seem to be happiest.

Those living alone, by choice, seemed to be next happiest, and those living in three-generation families unwillingly, the least happy group.

Democrats Will Meet Wednesday

The Newton Democratic City Committee will hold its Winter meeting on Wednesday March 1 at 8:00 p.m., at the Newton Highlands Women's Club on Columbus Street, Newton Highlands.

A debate between John M. (Pat) Lynch, Democratic State Committee Chairman and State Senator Mario Umama on the question "Should the Pre-Primary State Convention Be Abolished," will be featured.

Chairman Lynch is the sponsor of a bill before the legislature which would eliminate the State Convention; Senator Umama, of East Boston, is one of the outspoken opponents of the Bill and an articulate defender of the State Convention as a means to strengthen the Democratic Party in the Commonwealth.

State Chairman Lynch is presently a petitioner in a Bill in Equity to prevent the issuance of a corporate charter to C.O.D., a group of Democratic Party officials with the professed purpose of revitalizing the state-wide Democratic Party organization. C.O.D. has particularly attacked Lynch for the manner in which the last State Convention was run by him.

The meeting will not be confined to City Committee members and all Democrats in the City of Newton are cordially invited to attend. Lawrence E. Cooke, Democratic City Committee Chairman will preside.

He spoke against a so-called "TeePee" burner in which it was planned to consume excess material which cannot be handled by the city incinerator.

Dr. First said the proposed location would be in a low area and would cause a smoke nuisance to nearby dwellings here and in Waltham.

David W. Jackson of 362 Wolcott street, Auburndale who led the opposition, listed half a dozen "necessary" restrictions on dumping to conform with present day health and community requirements.

H. Carlton Moore of 145 Beaumont avenue, Newtonville, chief mechanical engineer for Metcalf & Eddy, declared that the city should place its present incinerator on a 24-hour basis, build additional storage bins and the expanded use of the incinerator would lessen the need for additional dumping space.

Irving Fishman of 188 Cotton street, Newton Centre, attorney for the opponents, expressed the opinion that a formal change of zone would be required before the city can use the area for dumping. Part of the land is now in a residential zone.

Others who spoke in opposition included Cooper Eastman, 50 Stanfield street, chairman of the Committee Opposed to Dumping; Edward J. Carey, 110 Stanfield street; Richard B. Felberg, 5 Freeman street, and Dana E. Blodgett, 10 Owatonna street.

The Fight For Newton

Few public leaders would have had the courage to make the fight Mayor Donald L. Gibbs has waged to soften the impact the construction of the proposed toll road extension will have upon the City of Newton. Gibbs has stood by his guns in the face of intensive pressure and unwarranted attacks. He has been called an obstructionist by editorial writers who didn't know what they were talking about because he battled to protect the city he is serving as Mayor. It has become apparent that Gibbs will be obliged to settle for the concessions he has been able to get and accept the toll road project along the route of the B. & A. tracks, with a somewhat modified interchange at Newton Corner. While Gibbs didn't win his fight, he did gain a number of concessions for Newton which the city would not have received except for the strong stand he made. Mayor Gibbs has earned the gratitude of the people of Newton for the battle he waged in their behalf.

Volpe needs a harmonious working relationship with Lamson and Giles. At the same time he is trying to pull together all elements of the Republican party in Massachusetts and give recognition to leaders who did not support him at the convention last June. A weakness in the position of Lamson and Giles is that up to the time this is written they have not found a candidate to back against Allen for the committee chairmanship. They would like to get former V.A. Administrator and ex-Lieutenant Governor Sumner G. Whittier to head up their party's State Committee, but Whittier presently is considering a number of attractive positions in private industry. His family is still living in Washington, and he plans to remain there until his children finish school in June. How the matter finally will be resolved is uncertain, but Lamson and Giles declare emphatically that it will not be settled to their satisfaction if Allen is elected the new chairman. Volpe also is having a difficult time smoothing down the ruffled feelings of other prominent figures in the Republican party. Mayor Lawrence W. Lloyd of Melrose, Volpe's campaign manager last fall, made no secret of his bitter disappointment when Volpe bypassed him and nominated Robert Beaudreau to the new State commission of public safety. Lloyd wanted the job as head of the State police and was so certain he was going to get it that he worked nights at Melrose City Hall clearing up his business there. He was thunderstruck when Volpe picked Beaudreau for the position. State Insurance Commissioner Otis M. Whitney also wanted the post. It was assumed in political circles that he was the second choice to Lloyd but that the job would go to the Melrose Mayor. Mayor Lloyd is a political pro and probably will not break diplomatic relations with Volpe over the fact that he didn't get the position he wanted. He is more likely to nurse his bruised feelings and wait to see what other post the Governor offers him. Volpe may run into further trouble with the Executive Council when the nomination of Beaudreau comes up for confirmation in that body. The Council, which virtually ran wild during the closing months of ex-Governor Furcolo's administration, has been quietly cooperative so far with Volpe. However, there have been rumblings that the Governor may encounter difficulty in persuading the all-Democratic Council to confirm his appointment of Beaudreau. Meanwhile, other Republicans are still grumbling over Volpe's action in designating

Rep. Rawson Speaks

Editor, Newton Graphic, Dear Sir: It is most unfortunate that the Boston Herald recently delivered a vitriolic attack upon our courageous Mayor Donald L. Gibbs. "Blackmail" is a dirty word. To make even an insinuation of it against a devoted public servant who is merely doing his sworn duty according to the oath which he took on assuming the office to which we elected him because we have faith in him is a base and intolerable act. It is my considered opinion that the people of Newton are behind Mayor Gibbs in his heroic fight to save us from the loss of people's homes, destruction of business centers, disruption of city services and utilities, interference with community life and an increased tax rate due to destruction of taxable values. Why should all this happen merely to gratify the insatiable ambition of one man, the chairman of the Turnpike Authority? The Turnpike extension seems to be economically unsound anyway. Why should this extension be built at a cost of some $170-million or more, for which tolls would be charged, when a freeway can be built for millions less with the Federal Government reimbursing us for 90 percent of the cost? A freeway along the Charles River—a modification of the Western Expressway route projected in Gov. Bradford's Master Highway Plan of 1948—would do this with a much lower property loss. I have filed House Bill 864 for the American Automobile Association, and myself, to do just that. However, the Highway and Motor Vehicles Committee, dominated by Mr. Callahan, has not yet deigned to mark it up for a hearing. Why did the Prudential have a change of mind and say they would accept only a toll road? Did Mr. Callahan tell them to say that? What will be their decision if the Turnpike Authority does not succeed in selling the bonds to build the extension? What then. Sad to relate, experience has shown that the Chairman of the Turnpike Authority gets what he wants out of the legislature. Is not that a bare-faced example of invisible government which is dangerous to the constitutional framework set up with wisdom and foresight by our founding fathers? Sincerely yours, (Rep.) George E. Rawson 4th Middlesex Dist.

Answer To Letter

Editor, Newton Graphic, Dear Sir: As a member of the Carr School P.T.A. who attended the meeting concerning fluoridation mentioned by one of your readers last week, I am writing to clarify some misleading statements in her letter. Those of us who heard Dr. Phillip's explanation of the many years of research regarding the effectiveness of fluoridation in reducing dental decay, could hardly accuse him of indiscriminate bias in his presentation. After all, when a public health procedure has been endorsed unqualifiedly by the American Medical Association; the American Dental Association; U. S. Public Health Service; the American Cancer Society and numerous other national and international health organizations, and when careful scientific research has conclusively ruled out the possibility of harmful effects resulting from it, the arguments of the opponents of this measure appear more emotional than factual. Since it is almost impossible for the average citizen to read all of the scientific studies and findings on the subject of fluoridation, most of us find it reasonable to turn to the opinions of responsible and qualified experts. That measure is intended to prevent future strikes on the M.T.A., but it also would cover all other transit companies throughout the Commonwealth. The Governor could have obtained the passage of a bill to outlaw M.T.A. strikes if he had sought such a law when feeling was high on the matter. Support for a law of that nature, however, has dwindled since the M.T.A. workers agreed on a three-year contract. In the coming weeks it is expected that Volpe will send one important message after another to the Legislature. Some of them will be of an extremely controversial nature. Only time will determine how many will be approved and how many rejected.

parts. For this reason particularly, our program committee sought out Dr. Phillips, the Newton health director, as a person well qualified to acquaint us with the proposals on fluoridation (as well as other health topics) and to render his expert opinion on the subject. I think it was the consensus of the audience that he covered the material very adequately in the available time. As to the suggestion that fluoride be provided to those parents who want it but not be added to the water—let's be realistic. The majority of persons who need it would not get it under such circumstances. There are some of us who already give it to our children. My own children, ages 7, 4, and almost 2, have been given sodium fluoride tablets daily for almost five years now and not one of them has ever had a single cavity! However, as one can imagine, it's a chore to remember to give the tablets every day and it's likely that relatively few people would ever carry through such a regimen. Look at the number of persons who neglect to get their full quota of Salk vaccine—and the very sad results in areas where polio epidemics break out. Obviously the issue of fluoridation will be debated during the coming months since Newton will vote on it next November. I, for one, hope to see a little less heat and a little more calm and reason prevail as the time approaches for a decision to be made on this issue. Eleanor S. Rosenblum Mrs. Gershen Rosenblum.

Success for Program

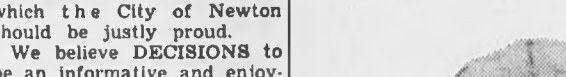

Editor, The Newton Graphic: Dear Editor: I should like to extend the compliments of the World Affairs Council of Boston to your newspaper and to the residents of Newton for the outstanding participation in DECISIONS 1961 foreign policy discussions throughout the community. Judging from reports we have received from Mrs. Martin Karlin, DECISIONS community chairman, there are at least 20 discussion groups in the Newtons, exclusive of school groups. This is a remarkable record, and one of which the City of Newton should be justly proud. We believe DECISIONS to be an informative and enjoyable program, and are delighted that so many Newton residents agree with our judgment. We should like to express our special thanks to Mrs. Karlin and the many people who have worked with her to make the program a success. The coverage which your paper has given the program has been of inestimable help. It is very encouraging to us to find so many persons concerned with the important foreign policy issues of our time. Congratulations and thanks to the good citizens of Newton! Sincerely, Nicholas Nyary, Executive Director.

Housing To Be Discussed At Annual Dinner

"What is happening to Newton's housing?" will be the topic of the combined annual dinner meeting of the Newton Community Chest and Newton Community Council on March 23 at the Newton Y.M.C.A. An outstanding panel headed by Mrs. Irene K. Thresher will include Charles E. Downe, Newton City Planning Consultant, Paul K. Deats of the Boston University School of Theology, and Lorenz F. Muther, Jr., Executive Director of the Newton Taxpayers Association, and recently elected State Representative. The panel presentations will cover various aspects of Newton's housing including the facts and figures on present local conditions, the psychological and sociological implications of the changes taking place, and the influence of tax considerations on Newton's housing. A study of the various housing activities in Newton was made a year ago under the direction of Mrs. Seymour S. Getter, vice president of the Community Council, as a result of interest shown by the Council's delegates. As a result of the study, a resume of current information on Newton's housing activities will be prepared and distributed to those attending the Annual Meeting. This resume will include information on the Newton Housing Authority, Newton Planning Board, Newton Fair Housing Practices Committee, as well as the housing activities of the Newton Taxpayers Association and the Newton Council of Churches. Headlights and Highlights From Newton South High

By JUDY BURAKOFF

HIGHLIGHTS . . . The most important social event of the Junior Class took place last Saturday night in the Student Dining Hall. The dance was for the Class of 1962 at both Newton High School and Newton South High School. The purpose of the dance was to provide a chance for Juniors to renew old acquaintances amid a Japanese atmosphere. The theme of the dance was Sayonara.

The dance music was provided by the orchestra of Larry Cooper. This year the prom was a closed dance, therefore a member of each couple had to be a junior. The prom committees were headed by a junior from each school. The committee chairmen were: publicity, Martha Rice and Kenny Kaitz, decorations, Marilyn DiNapoli, Sunny Grato, and Richie Salter; Entertainment, Sherri Lookner and David Linkin; refreshments, Margie Kaitz, Andy Pogatch and Mark Bortek; and Invitations, Tom DeSimone.

CAREERS — The Guidance department and school library assisted by the subject departments will offer to the students career afternoons. The purpose is to present a better understanding of various career fields. The meetings will be held once a month in the library where materials will be on display.

By a vote of the Junior class, the signet ring will be the official ring of Newton South High School. The members of the ring committee are Penny Allen, Martha Rice, Carol Cohen and Steve Frades.

JAPAN-bound — The Rev. Paul R. Gregory of Auburndale is scheduled to leave today (Thursday) on a two-month trip to Japan where he will visit mission stations of the Congregational Christian churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church. Mr. Gregory's home is at 136 Hancock St.

Dental Health Committee Pushes Referendum Drive

The drive of the Newton Citizens' Committee for Dental Health to obtain the support of registered Newton voters for a petition calling upon city officials to schedule a referendum on fluoridation in the 1961 local election has received a warm response in the first week of active solicitation of signatures, it was reported yesterday by Robert Tennant of West Newton and Irving Fishman of Newton Centre, co-chairmen of the drive.

Mr. Tennant and Mr. Fishman pointed to the achievement of one of their zone captains, Mrs. Benjamin Fastov of 56 Monardnock road, as an example of the positive response the drive of the Citizens' Committee has met in its initial phase. In the course of a few hours' work for the drive last Monday, Mrs. Fastov collected fifty signatures, enough to fill an entire petition sheet.

The aim of the Citizens' Committee, according to the co-chairmen for the signature campaign, is to obtain the backing of at least 2,500 registered Newton voters for the referendum petition by the end of March. Thirty-three zone captains have been recruited, they announced, to assist the eight area captains, whose appointment was made public last week, in gathering signatures for the petition in the various sections of the city.

The names of the zone captains and the areas of the city within which they will work are: Area 1 (Newton Corner-Norantum): Mrs. Jacob Shapiro, Mrs. Ezra Herschkovitz, Mr. Roger Marrocco, and Mrs. Walter Dohler; Area 2 (Newtonville): Mrs. William Ford; Area 3 (West Newton): Mrs. James Bailey, Mrs. Proctor

Seeks To Annex Newton to Boston

How would you like to have Newton made part of Boston? You wouldn't care for the idea?

Well, Representative John D. Brown of the Back Bay has filed a bill which would annex Newton to the Hub. He did so as a result of the opposition of Mayor Gibbs' opposition to the construction of the toll road through Newton.

But don't lose any sleep over the matter, Brown's measure is headed for the circular file sometimes referred to as the waste basket.

PETER A. DEROW

Harvard Junior Is Ad Manager Of The Crimson

Peter A. Derow, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry A. Derow of 25 Edge Hill Rd., Chestnut Hill, a junior at Harvard College, has been elected advertising manager of the Harvard "Crimson," the university's independent student newspaper.

Founded in 1873, the Harvard "Crimson" is the oldest college newspaper in the United States to publish six times weekly. Election to the executive board comes only after a rigorous competition sometimes lasting several months.

In his new position, Derow will have charge of the "Crimson's" advertising affairs, directing the sales staff and supervising advertising content and policy.

As a member of the class of 1958 at Newton High School, Derow was a member of the track team, on the staff of the school newspaper, the "Newtonite," and worked with the Student Activities Organization.

At Harvard, he is an honors major in architecture. In addition to his "Crimson" activities, he was a member of the freshman crew.

Top Panelists Feature Conference On Housing

Housing in a changing suburb will be presented by a panel of outstanding individuals, headed by Mrs. Irene Thresher, at the annual dinner meeting of the Newton Community Chest and Council on March 23, at the Newton Y.M.C.A.

Panel participants include Paul K. Deats of the Boston University School of Theology and a Newton resident, Charles E. Downe, Newton Planning Consultant and Lorenz F. Mutter Jr., Executive Director of the Newton Taxpayers' Association.

The subject of Housing has been chosen for this meeting due to a number of reasons. One of these is that the Community Council Governing Board feels the housing situation with its many ramifications such as aging, low rent, sub-standard, new apartment developments, minority opportunities, etc., is or should be of vital concern to those who are interested in having Newton continue as an outstanding place to live in this area. A second reason is that the delegates of the Community Council indicated about a year and a half ago that they were interested in knowing more of what was happening in Newton in the housing field.

As a result of this delegate interest the Council Governing Board made a study a year ago of the numerous housing activities going on in Newton. This study led to the preparation of a series of summaries of up-to-date information on the various groups engaged in housing activities in Newton. These will be distributed at the meeting on March 23.

The three panel members will be Charles Downe, who will present the factual picture of Newton's present housing, including the kinds of housing and their conditions (i.e. sub-standard) and what Newton's future housing picture will look like. He will also mention the progress to date of the Newton Housing Authority and the Planning Board activity relative to housing.

Paul K. Deats will speak about the psychological and sociological factors and implications involved in the changing housing situation in Newton. These include the significance of recent legislation for minority groups, social acceptance—or lack of acceptance—of certain groups, implications for both the minority and majority groups, and what we might anticipate in the future.

Lorenz Mutter will talk about Newton's present and future housing in relation to the tax situation and implications.

Dinner reservations may be made at the Newton Community Council office. Everyone interested in this subject is invited to attend.

New Lollypop Foundation For Children's Hospital

It's such a little thing that anyone considering the thousand-and-one items needed by a modern hospital might overlook—lollypops.

But when you project a mind picture of a little boy or girl, first of all in pain and second probably very frightened, you realize what an indispensable comfort one succulent lollypop can become.

"Children's Hospital purchased 93,500 lollypops in 1960," Joseph P. Greer, Director of Children's Medical Center, said today. Then he added that Children's Hospital is probably the largest hospital consumer of lollypops in the world.

Lollypops cost the hospital $1,287 last year and the average is five lollypops per child. One surgeon remarked that he could not work without them.

Mr. Greer looked up the lollypop statistics when a generous Boston business man telephoned to say he was organizing a Lollypop Foundation of America. The manufacturer insisted on remaining anonymous.

"He already has donated half of our year's supply," Mr. Greer said. The first shipment of new lollypops arrived last week, and the Foundation lollypops are slightly larger than those which had been purchased.

The lollypop man stated that the purpose of the Lollypop Foundation was to interest peoples in buying lollypops for children in hospitals and institutions throughout the world.

He hopes that celebrities will take an interest in the project and make the Lollypop Foundation a world-wide. The address of the Lollypop Foundation is 278 Roxbury St., Boston 19, Mass.

8. A piece of land next to the Newton Corner library will be deeded to the city by the Turnpike Authority to be used for parking purposes.

9. Preference will be given to Newton residents by the Turnpike Authority in employing persons in connection with the operation of the section of the toll road within the city.

10. Newton police officers will be employed on special details by the Authority during the construction of the toll road to relieve the city of the additional police work which would be necessitated by the project.

11. Large deposits will be made by the Turnpike Authority in Newton banks.

Interchange Major Bone of Contention

Principal bone of contention at the conferences this week between Mayor Gibbs and Chairman Callahan was a proposed interchange at Newton Corner which would be built to handle traffic going to and from the toll road.

In order to avert the demolition of property at Newton Corner, Mayor Gibbs sought to have that interchange eliminated and one constructed instead on less valuable land in the Faneuil area. Gibbs indicated at one stage that he would withdraw his objection if that concession were made. Callahan, however, insisted that the road would not be financially feasible unless it carried the traffic which would reach it through the interchange. He did agree to modify the interchange to save the Elks Building.

In the course of the discussion on that point Callahan said it would not be possible to sell the bonds to finance the construction of the toll road extension if the Newton Corner interchange were not included in the plan.

Callahan Cites Need for Corner

He estimated that the elimination of the Newton Corner interchange would cost the toll road $1 million a year in revenue during the first year of its operation and that the loss would climb to $2.5 million five years after the toll road extension is completed.

Gibbs demanded to see the figures to substantiate that claim. Callahan offered to produce the work sheets of traffic engineers who made the study, and an official of a Chicago firm who made the survey is to come here to present the facts and figures to Gibbs.

Mayor Gibbs was handicapped in his negotiations with Callahan by the tremendous pressure exerted on him by newspaper editorials and the statements of business and public leaders who claimed he was jeopardizing the proposed $200 million Prudential Centre by blocking the toll road.

Prudential officials increased the pressure on Gibbs by asserting that they would abandon their project unless the toll road were built beneath it.

List Activities Here For Aging

The Study Committee of the Newton Community Council which recommended formation of a Council for the Aging here, was headed by Mrs. Rose Cannon and Rev. Harold Malmberg.

The committee met with representatives of various agencies, city department heads and others serving Newton's older citizens to discuss the matter.

As a result, the Governor Board of the Community Council has urged formation of the Council for the Aging. It was announced by Community Council president David Berkman.

The Study Committee found that there are many activities for older people in Newton but there were two obvious needs: lack of coordination and communication, and lack of any single course of information.

The Community Council listed the activities:

In the recreation field these include the senior citizens' clubs of the Rebecca Pomroy House, Newton Community Center, and various churches, the Retired Men's Club, activities at the YMCA, the Recreation Department, as well as commercial entertainment. Health facilities include those provided by the Health Department, the Newton-Wellesley Hospital, Visiting Nurse Association, the Home Care Program, and a number of nursing homes.

The Welfare Department and Family Nursing Bureau furnish various social services. The Housing Authority and the Council of Churches are active in housing programs for the elderly. There are several homes for the elderly in Newton, which include Stone Institute, the Baptist Home of Massachusetts, and the Swedish Home for the Aged. The Massachusetts Division of Employment Security has a counselor to help older people locate job opportunities.

Forsyth Dental Director Urges Fluoridation

Dr. John B. Macdonald of Newton, Director of the Forsyth Dental Infirmary, stated today that fluoridation of water prevents disease and said "there is no other way for the citizens of Newton to make such a significant contribution to dental health at such an insignificant cost."

Dr. Macdonald is Professor of Microbiology at the Harvard School of Dental Medicine. He said every major health organization in the country has endorsed fluoridation as effective and safe.

"The Supreme Courts of 10 states in which the question has been raised," Dr. Macdonald stated, "have ruled that communities do have the right legally to promote the health of their inhabitants and that no constitutional rights are infringed upon by fluoridation."

"The argument that fluoridation is costly and wasteful also is invalid. Fluoridation is the least costly method known to improve the dental health of a community. . . . Cost of fluoridation actually amounts to a few cents a year per individual."
